REV. J. D. MORROW

Known all over Canada as the "Athletic Parson," who is shown making a flight in an aeroplane at St. Augustine, Florida, where he is seeking better health, Mr. Morrow once held the record for long distance running in Canada, and secured a portion of the money to build his new Toronto church by holding an athletic field day.

GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC FED BY BRANCH LINES

Completion of Arteries From the Main Road Will Open Much Fertile Country

Winnipeg, April 25.—With the approaching completion of the Grand Trunk Pacific's main line, the preparations that have been made to feed the main artery with a series of branch lines are of particular interest. When in 1903 the Canadian government and the Grand Trunk Pacific railway entered into an agreement for the construction and operation of a railway across Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific, the necessity of these branch lines was kept in view, and in 1906 a subsidiary company was incorporated under the name of the Grand Trunk Pacific Branch Lines company, with a capital stock of $50,000,000. This company was authorized to construct branch lines through fertile sections of the country, with an aggregate total mileage of about 7,500 miles.

An early start was made on the construction of the branches and already, west of Winnipeg, about 1,200 miles of subsidiary lines have been completed, while arrangements have been made between the various provincial governments and the railway for the construction in the near future of many hundreds of miles of additional branch lines.

That the Grand Trunk Pacific has the strongest belief in its revenue earning power is seen in the preparations that have been made for handling traffic in the future. It has erected along its route over 300 elevators at various points that will be grain-producing centres. These are built in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. Its chain of hotels and terminals is rapidly becoming completed to attend to the wants of tourist trade.

STAKERS IN NORTH ACTIVE THIS SPRING

Mining Recorder at Dawson Is Working Over-time

Dawson, April 25.—Staking continues to occupy the attention of the stamperers in the Sixty-mile country. Ten to twelve miles are staked above the portion described as a river, and river claims are staked along a good portion of the ground below the creek limit.

Ten-mile, a tributary of Sixty-mile, has been staked to the clouds. The posts extend to or into the sixties above discovery. In the Scroggie district some staking of placers has also been done of late. Mariposa claims are being renewed, and the future of the creek is encouraging to the men who have been working there.

The Dawson recorder is flooded with applications for claims staked on O'Brien and vicinity. The several creeks there are long, and prospectors have been much encouraged by the finding of traces of gold in several places and the location of seven-cent pans at the bottom of the shaft sunk on discovery by McLaughlin and partner. The district is easily accessible, and if it is developed into a paying one will be within easy reach of the steamers all through the open season.

Bowen creek, which lies near the boundary, and was known by some as Dominion, has been prospected quite a little of late, and the fractions recently have been staked. Some of the Chisana prospectors are said to have moved down to Bowen to work.

Box-making Machine

The Balmoral cannery has installed a box-making machine and it is now in operation making up boxes in which to ship the empty cans to the other B. C. Packers' canneries in the district. Usually boxes are not made up until the plant is complete, but this year the new sanitary cans for all the canneries are being made at the central plants and shipped out. This is the first box-making machine installed in district No. 2.

GOVERNOR-GENERAL TO AID BOY SCOUTS

Following Letter Received by The News Will Explain Itself

Dear Sir: His royal highness the governor general is very desirous of raising a fund to provide for the cost of controlling and directing the work of the boy scouts throughout the Dominion, and more especially to cover the salary and expenses of a travelling secretary.

Whilst the eastern provinces have responded most liberally to this appeal, there does not appear to have been the same interest shown in the west. His royal highness, however, considers the cause so meritorious, and is personally so desirous of placing it on a regular and satisfactory footing before the close of his term of office, that he has asked me to appeal for subscriptions of any amount that will indicate the interest of the people of British Columbia in a movement which he considers of growing importance to future of the Dominion.

THOS. PATTERSON, Lieutenant-Governor.

HON. R. L. BORDEN IS COMING TO THE COAST

"If present arrangements are carried out the people of British Columbia may expect a visit from the Rt. Hon. R. L. Borden during the coming summer," said Sir Richard McBride in the course of an interview. "The date is as yet uncertain," the premier said, "but it will probably be towards the end of the summer. The prime minister when I saw him at Ottawa was looking well and working hard."
