One of the recent arrivals in Prince Rupert was Eddie Murphy, who came on Wednesday's boat. Murphy is here for the purpose of assisting Monte Label to train for his future bouts. He is a well known figure on the Coast, where he has followed the boxing game for a number of years.

Murphy intends to remain here for some time and is ready to meet any featherweight in the business.

Among the women who attended the Johnson-Moran fight in Paris, where those who bore such great names in French society as Baroness Henri de Rothschild, the younger Duchess d'Uzes, Countess Matheu d'Noailles, the poet Princess de Luinge, the Duchess de Rohan, Princess Morouzief and Countess de Proumiers.

Grahame Rock, the star twirler of the Old Hazelton ball team, had the misfortune to throw his arm out in a recent game with New Hazelton, and may not be able to appear again this season. However, the management of the old town are not to be caught napping and have already strengthened their battery, and are quite confident of carrying away "the bunting."

J. M. MacCormick, one of the most enthusiastic of ball fans of Old Hazelton, who has been spending a few days in the city, returned home this morning. "Mack" is one of the best known authorities on sport in the Province, having in years past carried off the premier honors in lacrosse, bicycle riding and football in British Columbia.

That the management of the Ketchikan baseball team should have requested Fred Wallace, the local baseball arbiter, to travel to Ketchikan and take charge of the game in the American city, is a compliment richly deserved. In a pitcher's duel such as that put up on Dominion Day only the baseball fan who thoroughly understands the fine points of the game, can appreciate the strain on the "man behind."

The followers of baseball in Prince Rupert are fortunate, indeed, to have an official such as Wallace proved himself to be on Dominion Day.

Another baseball series between Hazelton and Prince Rupert would be a drawing card that the Freddie Welsh and Willie Ritchie will mingle in the squared circle at London, England, this afternoon for the lightweight championship of the world. Welsh has camped on Ritchie's trail for a long time, claiming he was the 'Frisco boy's master, and now he has the chance of proving himself so.

If Ritchie is to retain the title he will have to put the Britisher away inside of the twenty rounds, for as a scientific boxer Welsh is peer of them all in the lightweight division.

The fact should not be overlooked that the majority of the Merchants' football team went over from the Callies to make the league possible.

The "Scotsmen" can still field a team that can beat any aggregation in Northern British Columbia.

Frank Smeathers is endeavoring to sign Lem Kegg up with Joe Bayley. If successful the "go" would be a popular one as both boys are favorites with the tight fans of Prince Rupert. The date will be August 5th.

The more the recent Burns-Neff bout is discussed by fight fans of this city, the stronger the opinion prevails that although the decision was a close one, Frank Smeathers was entirely justified in awarding the fight to Neff.

In refusing Kendall permission to play on the V. A. C. team on Saturday last, Joe Lally handed Vancouver more in one minute than Johnson did Moran in twenty rounds.

Nationals have taken the T out of Toronto, removed the Q from Quebec and have made Tecumsehs look like real Indians in the "Big Four" up to and including the game of June 27th. Six straight just about clinches the title for the Frenchmen.

Jack Johnson clearly demonstrated that Frank Moran has no business in the ring with a good heavyweight. Johnson won, and without exerting himself. Sam Langford is really the only boxer who is entitled to meet Johnson. When they meet it will be a contest worth watching.

Ad Wolgast has broken his arm, thus halting the Rivers-Wolgast match, which was to have taken place here on July 4th. He will be forced to remain idle two or three months before he can fight again.

Doughy Spring writes from Toronto that there is not one team in the "Big Four" that would be able to lift the Minto Cup from New Westminster.

But right after him comes a statement from Jimmy Murphy that the Rosedales of Toronto are sure cup-lifters if they decide to make the Western journey in the Fall.

national polo series between England and the United States were enormous. Last year money was lost. This year the receipts were almost $200,000. The expenses will total about one-quarter of this. Some of the money will be spent towards building a fine new club house on the new polo grounds. Lord Wimborne of the English team, is reported to have made about $17,000. He and the rest of the visitors wagered heavily that they would lift the cup, and benefited financially as a result. It was a great series and the winning of the cup by England has done the game no end of good.

This is a pitcher's year.

The poor batsmen haven't a chance.

Last season the sluggers reigned supreme. Reports of games told of great batting feats—how Ty Cobb had cracked out four or five hits in a game. Joe Jackson had put a dozen dents in the right field wall, or Frank Baker had sent a Homer whistling over the right field fence in the city of brotherly love.

A year ago at this time 18 players were hitting .300 or better. Today not one of the 18 is hitting the ball as hard as he did last season.

More Hindus Coming

Vancouver, July 4.—From semi-official sources it is learned that a second steamer with three hundred and fifty Hindus aboard has left Hongkong. The cable, which came from private sources from London, Eng., was received to this effect.

The second party will bring all the passengers from Calcutta, and so fulfill the regulations that immigrants must come direct from the land of their origin. It will be three weeks before the party reaches Vancouver.

Contrary to last year's figures the receipts for the recent inter-
