News Boy Wins Suit

The Daily News is still giving away free suits of clothes to its live "newsies." Every boy who is a regular seller gets a ticket for every five papers he sells which entitles him to a chance in the drawing for a suit. The last drawing, which took place on July 15th, was won by Rupert Capet, a little lad with a slightly foreign accent but who is perhaps the most live "Kid" in the city. The suit was purchased from the Acme Clothing House, the clothing experts who are making a specialty of boys suits. A few more news boys can get a job with The Daily News, and have a chance to win a suit. The drawings are held monthly, the next on August 15th.

MUSICAL REQUEST PROGRAMS

Novelty to Be Inaugurated at the Westholme Tonight

For nearly two years the Westholme Opera House orchestra under the leadership of Mr. George Werner, has been one of the most popular institutions in Prince Rupert and justly so for no better four-piece orchestra can be found anywhere in the northwest.

In choosing his programs, Mr. Werner has been generally fortunate in providing music of all kinds for all classes, ranging from grand opera selections and standard overtures, to ragtime. Still it often happens that he is approached by some musical enthusiast with the query: "Why don't you play" this, that or the other musical composition, the request being generally for some of the so-called popular classics or latest musical comedies.

In his efforts to please, Mr. Werner has decided to play request programs every Monday and Tuesday, beginning tonight with the following program which was handed in last week by a prominent Government official of this city:

1. Overture, "William Tell," Rossini.
2. Overture, "Italians in Algiers," Rossini.
3. Musical comedy selection, "A Runaway Girl."
4. Violin solo, "Humoreske," Dvorak.
5. Peer Gynt Jante (a) "Anitias Dance," (b) "Morgenstrimmung" Grieg.
6. "Minuet," Paderewski.
7. "Melody in F," Rubinstein.
8. "Ragtime Medley."

In addition to the above request called for "Pinafore," "La Fille du Mme-Angot," and a violin solo by Bach. These have been ordered from the publishers and will be played at a later date. Requests for next week's Monday and Tuesday program can be mailed to P.O. Box 262, or left at the Opera House Box Office during the week.
