President of Sunday School in Tells How He Cured Himself of Rheumatism After Suffering Years.

WILKINSON ROAD, Oct., 1st, 1913.

For a long time, I have thought of writing you regarding what I term a "Fruit-a-tive". I suffered from rheumatism, especially in my hands,
and it cost me a lot of money without results. I have taken "Fruit-a-tives" for 18 months now, and am able to tell you that I am cured.
The enlargement has not left my hands and perhaps never will, but the pain is all gone and I can do any work. I have gained 35 pounds in 18 months.

R. A. WAUGH

Rheumatism is no longer the dreaded evil it once was. Rheumatism is no longer one of the "incurable diseases". "Fruit-a-tives" has proved itself a powerful power over Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago—in fact,
all such diseases which arise from derangement of stomach, bowels,
or skin.

"Fruit-a-tives" is sold by all dealers
in a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, sent postpaid on receipt of
5c. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

SUMMARY SUNDAY WAR NEWS

(Special to THE NEWS)

London, August 30.—Field Marshal General French says the British losses in the first three days of last week totalled six thousand. The German losses were very much greater.

London, August 31.—The British are in need of great reinforcements. The investment of Paris is possible.

London, August 30.—A Times despatch says the German advance during the week has been with incredible rapidity. They did not give the retreating British forces a moment's rest.

London, August 30.—The British War Office announces that two British officers and twenty-seven men were killed in the Heligoland naval fight. Forty were injured.

London, August 30.—The Russians and Austrians are fighting a fierce engagement today along the River Vucila. The Russians claim a success.

London, August 30.—General French declares the Allies are in a strategic position now. Such a position that a decisive victory for them would be fatal to the Germans. Even a continuance of the present resistance would have the same result.

Paris, August 30.—A German aeroplane threw a bomb into Paris early this morning but no damage was done.

Washington, August 30.—Reports here indicate that Turkey is about to join Germany in the war.

London, August 30.—The British army has been resting since August 26th, having, after a desperate fight on that day, extricated itself in good order, but with serious losses.

London, August 30.—A German statement claims the British were defeated at St. Quentin and the retreat was barred by the German cavalry. This was announced Saturday and a later despatch says the Germans again had to retire before the British.

BERLIN IN PANIC OVER ADVANCE OF RUSSIAN ARMY

(Special to THE NEWS)

Rome, August 31.—An official despatch from Berlin says that the residents are now in panic stricken. Food is scarce and the fear of the Russian advance is great. The Russians are reported at the Vistula River and the people fear Berlin will be invested.

FRANCE HAS FORMED NEW ARMY CORPS OF 250,000 MEN

(Special to THE NEWS)

London, August 31.—According to the latest reports France has formed a new army of a quarter of a million men to take the offensive against the German right wing immediately.

They will be sent to the Belgian border and it is anticipated that their number will be sufficient to force the Germans back through Belgium unto their own soil.

GERMAN PACIFIC TAKEN BY BRITISH NAVAL BASE IS

London, August 31.—An official report says Apia, the seaport of Upolu, Samoan Island, has surrendered to the British. This is the nearest German naval station to British Columbia.

ITALY PREPARING TO JOIN THE ALLIES WAIT AUSTRIA'S REPLY

(Special to THE NEWS)

Rome, August 31.—Italy is reported to have sent an ultimatum to Austria, demanding a forty-eight hour explanation of the mobilization of troops on the Italian frontier.

It is believed Italy is preparing for war and getting ready to send a fleet to join the British and French in the Adriatic.

PARIS REPORTS MORE CHEERFUL

(Special to THE NEWS)

Paris, August 31.—Late reports indicate that the Germans have penetrated a short distance further on the River Somme.

The British and French have assumed the offensive. Further west the French checked the enemy's advance guard, and at the other end on the Meuse they are offering strong and successful resistance along the whole line.

WHY ITALY HAS NOT STAYED WITH ALLIANCE

(Special to THE NEWS)

The Triple Alliance got out of existence just in the decisive moment, because no human power has ever been able to reconcile the Austro-Italian rivalry.

The eyes and ambitions of Italy are centered on the Adriatic as those of Britain are on the North Sea. What the Strait of Dover is for the British that of Otranto is for the Italians.

The best harbors on the Adriatic are on the eastern coast; Trieste, Pola, Fiume, Sebenico, Cattaro, Valona, all naval bases of importance are on the Austrian shores of the Adriatic.

They are all Italian names. The people are today, after a century of foreign domination, speaking the language of Dante. Up to the times of Napoleon they were maritime domains of the republic of Venice. Trieste, as well as the Trentino are for the present generation the Italian Irredenta, as Lombardy and Venice were for the old one.

The "Third Italy" considers that if Austria and Germany are victorious, Serbia and Montenegro and the way to Salonica are going to be Austrian possessions. The Austrian Empire would also annex the unstable kingdom of Albania, and probably Valona, the key of the Strati of Otranto would pass in the hands of the dual monarchy.

Italy must also consider what would be the attitude of a victorious Austria towards an ally, which at the decisive moment for her special reasons, although honorable, has failed to take the assigned position.

A victory of the Allies would have no serious consequence for Italy. In fact, with a defeated and probably dismembered Austria, the Italian aspirations to dominate the Adriatic could be realized. Trieste and the Trentino could be recuperated, a protectorate on Albania could be established, and Italy could easily retain Rhodes and the Islands of the Dodecanese with the full approval of Britain and France, the two naval powers of the Mediterranean Sea.

Self interest is a decisive element just as much for the nations as it is for individuals, and in the case of Italy the instinct of self-preservation, the traditions and popular sentiments are all aiming at a single object. That explains why the despatches from Europe persist in foreseeing that Italy will have a "casus belli" with her hereditary enemy, Austria.

It is foolish to be a prophet, but it is well to remember the famous words of a great Italian diplomat, Count Nigra, who said: "Italy and Austria can only be either allies or enemies, and Italy in the great crisis of modern Europe has definitely and deliberately decided to be the adversary of Austria."
