RUSSIANS CONTINUE THEIR SUCCESS IN GERMANY

ENDING SIEGE TO KOENIGSBURG AFTER DEFEATING GERMANY

NUMBER OF PRISONERS TAKEN BY RUSSIANS—ALSO IMMENSE AMOUNT OF ARTILLERY AND OTHER STORES.

(Special to The Daily News—1 P. M.) on, Sept. 15.—In the sev-days' battle of the Rus-against the Austro-German just ended the following results: Prisoners taken, field guns captured, 450; artillery captured, 1,000 pieces; transport wagons taken, 4,000. Aeroplanes taken, 7.
The Russian embassy at Rome says the German army commanded by General Von Hindenburg has been defeated near Miawa, with a loss of 50,000 men. The Russians have commenced to lay siege to Koenigsburg.

DO NOT USE DUM-BULLETS AS GERMANS CHARGE

(Special to The Daily News—1 P. M.) on, Sept. 15.—Sir Edward caused the following ca-denial of the German that the British and troops have been using bullets to be published and: "His Majesty's gov-declares publicly and of-that the statement made German general staff to

DETAILS OF BATTLE-- HOW RUSSIANS WON

(Special to The Daily News—1 P. M.) Petrograd, Sept. 15.—The following is the official War Office statement: "On the Austrian front the Russian troops are now crossing the San River. On taking a position near the Rawa Ruska the Russian troops captured 30 cannon and 8,000 prisoners, besides an enormous amount of stores, war material and provisions. The results of the pursuit of the enemy in this territory is still unknown. In the marshes of Belgoraiom the Russians found more Austrian batteries sunk in the mud and abandoned during the flight. The general army while repulsing the last desperate Austrian attack took the offensive and a great number of prisoners and guns were taken, the total number not yet being determined.
General Brussloff declares that the troops gave proof of their great energy, determination and bravery.

25,000 GERMANS HAVE SURRENDERED

(Special to The Daily News—1 P. M.) London, Sept. 15.—The correspondent of the Central News at Dieppe transmits a report that the German army under General Von Kluck has been forced to surrender with 25,000 men.

GERMAN ARMY STILL INTACT BIG CLASH IS YET COMING

FIRST ROUND OF BATTLE OF MARNE WON BY ALLIES-- IN AS "BATTLE OF THE AGES" — ANOTHER BIG CLASH BEFORE THE END COMES.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Sept. 15. — The first battle of Marne, on numbers of fighting aged and the extent of and terrific slaughter, is perhaps correctly described as "the battle of the ages," and appears to have been won by the French and British armies but the main German army is still intact, and the supreme clash is yet to come.

GERMAN
UHLAN

SOME SCENES FROM THE WAR FRONT.

These are some of the first pictures taken since the outbreak of hostilities in Europe. The upper left picture shows one of the crack French regiments leaving Paris for the front. The right hand picture shows a section of the German artillery in action. In the lower picture are seen some of the famous German Uhlans, from whom so much has been heard in the first battles of the war.

NEW PONTIFF CHEERED ON FIRST APPEARANCE

Great Scene at the Vatican as He Imparts Apostolic Blessing.

Rome, Sept. 12.—After the Sacred College of Cardinals had elected Cardinal Giacomo Della Chiesa, Archbishop of Bologna, Supreme Pontiff, to succeed the late Pope Pius X., the Pope was asked to present himself before the people for the first benediction. He turned to Cardinal Merry del Val, Papal Secretary of State, and said: "I hope I shall have strength to overcome my emotion."

Crowds outside clamored to see the new Pontiff, and several of the cardinals, including Cardinals Farley, Gibbons and O'Connell, tried to calm the assemblage to obtain silence.

The excitement reached a climax when the Pope finally emerged. He was alone, and a hush fell over the multitude. All kneelt, and the Pontiff raised his hand, with three fingers outstretched, and imparted with melancholic voice the apostolic blessing. A great cheer rang out as he turned to withdraw.

tiff is an admiral in the Italian

EVERY CANADIAN CITY NEEDS A HOME GUARD

Germans in United States Said to Be Well Armed—Planning Invasion.

Hamilton, Sept. 14.—Scout Commissioner Heming, an ex-alderman, who is busily engaged in organizing a home guard here, told a startling story this morning to a small army of German reservists at Buffalo. "The feeling in the German section there is intense," he said, "and we have information that there are 7,000 armed Germans in Buffalo alone, who are better equipped than the New York state militia. The cry is often heard in German quarters in the States, 'On to Canada.' Every city in Canada, he said, should have a home guard to make up for the shortage that will be felt in militia circles when the second call comes for troops to cross the water."

GERMANS FIGHTING FIERCELY IN E. PRUSSIA

(Special to The Daily News)

Petrograd, Sept. 15.—Instead of the Russian troops capturing Koenigsburg, they were forced to retreat. Yesterday's official announcement admitted this. Generalissimo Grand Duke Nicholas communicates the following:
"Our rapid movement in East Prussia is retarded owing to the necessity of giving our main attention to fighting in Galicia.
Consequently General Rennekampf suspended his march on Gerdauen and Labimu. On September 7 the German troops began a general offensive against this army and spread the movement in the direction of their southern frontier."

"SIR SAM" CANNOT REPLY TO THIS LETTER

Boy Wrote "Dear Lord Sam" Offering "137 Cents"—Forgot Address.

Ottawa, Sept. 14.—Young Canada is temporarily dropping its pennies into the country's war chest instead of into the missionary box, and is contributing its mite for the defence of the flag.
The Minister of Militia received the following letter in his mail:
"Dear Lord Sam,—Will you tell me how much money it takes to send a soldier to the war? I have 137 cents. I had a heathen of my own to help last year. Let me be told soon. I want to send one for my own dear country." (Signed) Willie Strong.

The young patriot put no home address on his letter, and a formal reply cannot therefore be sent. The letter was addressed to "Sir Sam Hughes, Minister of War, Parliament (Private)."

FRANCE'S FOOD SUPPLY.

Assured by Home Crops and by Imports From the States.

London, Sept. 14.—The French people are very active in stopping people on the street in order to make sure that all foreigners are provided with permits of residence and that no Frenchmen are in Paris who should be with the army, says the Paris correspondent of Reuter's Telegraph Company. In one night they questioned more than 3,000 persons in the Montmartre section of Paris alone. Several suspects were arrested.

It is said that despite Argentina's prohibition of the exportation of corn, the French supply is amply assured by the home crops and imports from the United States.

BELGIAN QUICK FIRING CUT UP GERMANS

(Special to The Daily News—2:30 P. M.)

London, Sept. 15.—The German cavalry and the Belgian quick firing corps had an engagement yesterday. The German losses were heavy.

BELGIUM ARMY HAD NARROW ESCAPE

Antwerp, Sept. 15.—Surprised by a sudden offensive movement on the part of the German forces, the Belgian army commanded by King Albert in person was forced to retreat to Antwerp. The Germans apparently led the Belgians into a trap, aiming to get between King Albert's army and Antwerp, but by hard fighting the Belgians escaped. The losses on both sides were heavy.

GERMANS PUSHED BACK-- REAR GUARD ACTION ALL ALONG THE LINE

(Special to The Daily News—2:30 P. M.)

Paris, Sept. 15.—The French official statement says: "The French troops have reoccupied Amiens, which was abandoned by the Germans, but the Germans are making a stand near Aisne."

The statement follows: "On our left wing we have everywhere caught up with the rear guard and even with the main body of the enemy. Our troops have re-entered Amiens and the enemy appear to be making a stand at a prepared front along the River Aisne. On the center it similarly would seem as if the enemy intends to resist. On the heights northwest to north of Rheims in the region between the Argonne and the Meuse they continue to retire. On our right wing we succeeded in relieving the front of Tryono, which had been stubbornly attacked the second time again during the last few days. In Lorraine we are pursuing detachments and keeping as everywhere else in touch with the Germans.
The morale and sanitary condition continue excellent."

ROMAN POPULACE FAVORS THE ALLIES

(Special to The Daily News—2:30 P. M.)

Rome, Sept. 15.—A demonstration in favor of France and Britain took place here last night.
The troops charged the crowds and many were hurt.

ARMY OF CROWN PRINCE MAY BE CUT OFF BY ALLIES

(Special to The Daily News—2:30 P. M.)

Bordeaux, Sept. 15.—The army of the German Crown Prince is believed to be in a precarious position and may probably be cut off by the Allies to the north of Rheims.

25,000 JAPANESE ARE NOW IN ACTION

(Special to The Daily News—2:30 P. M.)

Penkin, Sept. 15.—Twenty-five thousand Japanese troops have now been landed on Shung-Tung Peninsula. The Chinese government is sending 25 Red Cross men to serve among both combatants at Kaio-Chau.
