JUVENILE BOSTONAN OPERA COMPANY.

"My Tango Maid," which comes to the Westholme Theatre TWO VANCOUVER for seven nights, starting Saturday, September 26, unquestionably is in the front rank of the great American comic opera successes of the decade responsible for the select small list that would include such wonderful hits as "Floradora," "Dolly Varden" and possibly half a dozen others. The Juvenile Bostonian who have volunteered for service Opera Company is bringing the piece here in a production mod- at the front left for Valcartier. eled as closely after the original lines as the same men who groomed it for its memorable New York first night could direct.

A notable and entirely adequate cast, including twenty girls, the best company the Juvenile Bostonians has ever carried, principal roles having been assigned to such well known favorites of musical comedy as "Thom" Hellen, "Patsie" Henry, "Billee" O'Neill, Halcyon Clarke, Doris Canfield, Lottie Clarke, Ina Mitchell and Mazie Hill.

Miss Hellen will be seen in the leading role, one which gives her glorious voice and exceptional acting abilities fullest play. change of opera will be given each performance.
