ANOTHER RAID ON GERMAN DIRIGIBLE SHEDS

GREAT BRITISH VICTORY
SAYS TIMES CORRESPONDENT

GERMANS HAVE EVACUATED TRENCHES, LEAVING MANY DEAD—ALLIES GOING FORWARD.

(Special to The Daily News—9:30 A. M.)
London, Oct. 9.—A Times correspondent to the south of Aisne says that at one centre a most important British victory is now complete. The Germans have been evacuated their trenches, leaving many soldiers dead. It is not altogether true to say that the battle of Aisne is over even now, but in the past few days considerable areas have been deserted by the Germans and great wedges of the Allies' forces have been thrown forward.

RUSSIAN TROOPS MAKING
NIGHT RAIDS ON THE ENEMYSEVERAL PLACES RUSSIANS HAVE INFLICTED LOSS ON THE GERMANS, WHO ABANDONED RAPID FIRING GUNS
IN THE RUSH TO GET AWAY.

(Special to The Daily News—10:30 A. M.)
Petrograd, Oct. 9.—(Official.)—Communication from general headquarters says the fighting on the East Prussian frontier was continued on October 7th, with the same ferocity. In spite of human reinforcements all their attacks have been repulsed in the town of Wirallen, Russian Poland, and Philipoff.

By a night assault the Russian troops captured the village of Kamamka, in the forest of Masalski, at Zena, West Rachtka. The Russians in a night attack surrounded a German detachment, which was partly exterminated, others being dispersed, abandoning many rapid firing guns.

The Russian troops also captured the town of Biala. In the other regions there is nothing important to report.

BRITISH TRADE RETURNS ARE SURPRISINGLY GOOD

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Oct. 9.—Trade returns today indicate surprisingly little decline as the result of war. Trade today is in many ways surprisingly better than in 1913. The cotton trade is the one suffering severely. Germany's four neutral neighbors, Holland, Denmark, Norway and Sweden, have increased their coal exports from Britain by 50 per cent.

CANADIAN TROOPS

VON KLUCK'S ARMY
HAD NARROW CALLWas in Dangerous Position Week
Ago and Almost at Mercy of Allies.

Bordeaux, Oct. 7.—Minister of War Millerand stated today that only the steady arrival of heavy reinforcements had averted disaster for the army of General von Kluck and the entire right wing of the German army.

He said that early in the week the forces of von Kluck were in desperate straits and part of them had been forced to withdraw from advanced positions to a point northeast of St. Quentin by a raid of French cavalry.

General von Kluck, Minister Millerand said, had called for reinforcements, but their arrival was delayed and they came only in time to prevent a general withdrawal of the German troops.

ANTWERP FIERCELY BOMBARDED
BY QUARTER MILLION GERMANSENEMY MAKING DESPERATE ATTEMPT TO CAPTURE CITY—
BRITISH MARINES WITH HEAVY ARTILLERY LANDED
TO ASSIST BELGIANS—LANDED NEAR OSTEND.

(Special to The Daily News—9 A. M.)
London, Oct. 9.—A big British expedition was reported today to be rushing to Ghent's relief from the west of Antwerp. It was said to consist of a naval detachment and an artillery force with heaviest calibre guns and was assumed to have been landed on the Belgian coast at or near Ostend. The Germans are redoubling their efforts to capture the city and are much more numerous in the vicinity than had been supposed. The estimates place them as high as 250,000. Antwerp was subject to fierce bombardment throughout last night. The shells from the German 16 inch guns fell early this morning in the Place Verte, close to the cathedral. Fierce fighting has taken place for two days around Lille. The Germans lost more than 2,000 men and up to this morning had not succeeded in occupying Lille.

BRITAIN IS TOLD TO EXPECT A LONG WARGerman Resources Not Yet Exhausted—Defence Will Be Strongly Maintained.

London, Oct. 6.—The military expert of the Times says: "However much we may bend back the Germans' right wing and relieve Antwerp and whatever confidence we have that the shock of the Russian masses in the east will prove decisive, we must not entertain the slightest illusion regarding the hard and trying conditions which await all the Allies in the future in operating against Germany reduced to the defensive. "Germany is still united. Her resources grow atop. All her might is in arms, all her arsenals are working at full pressure. Her fleet will strike when the hour comes, probably in co-operation with the army.

"The line of the Aisne, when forced, may prove to be only one of many similar lines prepared in the rear of it. It may take a very long time for the Allies to compel Germany to feel a weakness. It therefore devolves upon the Allies to look forward to a long war."

The information is not confirmed authoritatively, but men employed at the camp are most enthusiastic over the showing, which is said to be a substantial one.
