DISEASE EPIDEMICS
RAGING IN VIENNA

Venice, Jan. 21.—Private reports from Vienna and sattements appearing in the Austrian papers show that conditions in the Austrian capital are daily becoming more serious.

Smallpox, cholera and typhoid fever are prevalent, forty-five cases of smallpox being reported in Vienna during the first nine days of January. Many cases of contagion are also reported from various centers of lower and upper Austria, Syria, Bohemia, Moravia, Silesia and Galicia.

Great numbers of fugitives have arrived from Bukovina. Many of them are on the verge of starvation.

DOMINION FINANCE.

The Dominion government is confronted with a serious financial problem. The revenue of Canada has fallen off during 1914 nearly forty-five million dollars, while the expenditure during the same period has been increased by over fifteen millions, and over seventy-three millions have been added to the national debt, which now stands at $376,744,164.

TO KEEP PARIS DARK

Paris, Jan. 21.—The military government has submitted to the authorities a suggestion that there be a diminution in the number of lights in Paris, and its suburbs, as a precautionary measure against aerial raids by the Germans. The authorities strongly urge that lights in shops and factories be strictly limited and that window shades be drawn carefully at night.

"DOWN WITH WAR."

This Is Cry of Starving Demonstrators in Vienna Streets.

Rome, Jan. 22.—Popular demonstrations have been held in Vienna against continuing the war. Starving demonstrators marched to the municipal offices crying, "Down with war," and tried to erect barricades. They were dispersed by the police.

RAILWAY BALL WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

The G. T. P. railwaymen were hosts at a very popular ball given last night in McIntyre Hall. The railwaymen have a name to live up to in this respect and did full credit to their hospitality.

The hall was suitably decorated for the occasion. The Third Avenue entrance to the hall was arranged to represent the rear end of a caboose and everybody got aboard.

The dance program was unique, being represented as a railway time table and the various dances were arranged on scheduled time. Each dance number was prefaced by some reference to the various departments, even to "A Raise in Pay." The following advice was included on the card:

"Extreme caution must be used at all time in regulating speed approaching damsels, safety of all dancers being first consideration."

"Any gentleman running with more than one lady or following a section must not exceed scheduled speed."

"All persons must reduce speed to a safe limit approaching the dining hall."

"All persons approach punch bowl between dances as indicated in ball room, under full control, expecting to find preceding couple taking refreshments."

The committees were as follows:

Hon. Chairman—W. H. Tobey. Committee on Arrangements—C. D. Fulmer, chairman; F. V. Foster, J. R. Hope, T. McKinnon, J. M. McCawley.

Reception Committee—F. C. Rowell, chairman; C. A. Loney, W. D. Moxley, J. M. Earley, W. G. Harris.

Floor Committee—P. V. Croken, chairman; W. E. Tippen, H. L. Morton.

BIG U. S. GUNS SENT TO STORM PRZEMSL

Fifteen Passed Through Minneapolis, En Route to Russia.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 22.—Fifteen specially designed 14-inch guns, said to be as powerful as the Krupp 42-centimetre guns, passed through Minneapolis last night for Russia. They will go via Vladivostok. Railway gossip said they will be used against the fortifications at Przemyśl.

The guns came from Bethlehem, Pa. They left for the West on a special train. The train was under special personal escort and the guns did not carry the name of any consignee.

DEAFNESS MAKES HIM
THINK BATTLE OVER

An English subaltern had a wierd experience a few days ago. He was with half a dozen brother officers in a ruined farmhouse, when a shell burst in their midst. When he recovered consciousness he felt very sick, but slowly got better, and discovered that he was untouched. All his comrades were dead except one, who was very severely wounded, and he judged that the fighting was over for the time being, because the furious cannonade had ceased and everything was silent. He carried a wounded comrade on his back to the British line, walking slowly across country with his burden. He was surprised to feel the wounded man struggle feebly and to hear him murmuring something about lying down, but he attributed it to delirium. When he reached his destination he found that he had crossed unscathed the most deadly part of the battle zone, a terrain absolutely swept by the enemy's fire. For the fighting was still going on furiously, and his wounded comrade knew it all the time but he himself was stone deaf for a fortnight.

In the matter of argument most people have more talk than brains to spare.

CANADIANS FOUGHT WITH THE GARIBALDIS

British Columbians Who Traveled From Mexico at Their Own Expense.

London, Jan. 22.—A group of British Columbians are doing valiant service in the French army. The story is brought to London by R. B. Cowell, of Golden, who says he has been one of the British Columbians serving at the French front with Garibaldi's Legions. He returned to London with his leg amputated in consequence of wounds, and is now assisting at the head recruiting office. Other British Columbians enlisted with the Garibaldis are Johns, Darcy, Woodrow, Fraser, Williamson, Tucker and Johnson. Of these, Johns was killed, and Darcy and Woodrow are now in hospital.

The British Columbia party, most of whom had been employed at Tigro, Mexico, came to England at their own expense to enlist in a cavalry regiment, but finding no vacancies proceeded to France and joined Garibaldi's Legion, which consists of cavalry and infantry.

Cowell says: "My horse was shot in an engagement at Troyes. I could not extricate myself as I was carrying a bunch of rifles. The horse fell on me and my kneecap was smashed. I had to lie where I fell all night and half the next day before I was found by the French Red Cross. They took me back to Troyes, where, after four operations, blood poisoning compelled the amputation of the leg."

Cowell is remarkably cheerful and even jokes about his cork substitute, which he says works well.
