

Dr. Price's CREAM BAKING POWDER

For sixty years Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder has been the standby of countless housekeepers who have relied upon it for healthful, home-baked food.

Dr. Price's contains no alum. There is never any question about the absolute purity and healthfulness of the food it raises.

VON DER GOLTZ HAS SUDDENLY VANISHED

German General in Turkey May Have Met With Violent Death.

Athens, March 17.—Field Marshal Von Der Goltz, the German commander of the Turkish army, arrived with a numerous staff some days ago at Smyrna to stay for two months with the purpose of superintending the strengthening of fortifications. Twenty-four hours later, however, he left, it is said, by special train for an unknown destination.

Since then no word has been heard regarding him, and it is reported in this city, and even believed by German officers, that he met with a violent death.

DRESDEN FIGHT.

The Dresden was sunk by the Glasgow and Kent on March 14 at 9 a. m. The entire German crew was saved, but fifteen were badly wounded. They were landed at Valparaiso.

While thankful that the Dresden has been retired from the high seas, the sailor boys of H. M. S. Newcastle, now in the Esquimalt dock, will be jealous in a friendly way, of course, of the good luck that has fallen to the commander of the Glasgow in bringing the fast Dresden to book. The Newcastle is just back from a three-months' cruise along the west coast of South America. Twice she cleared for action, thinking that she had found the Dresden, but on both occasions the news of her presence turned out to be a false alarm. For days on end the Britisher cruised amongst the Chilean islands, dodging in and out of bays and inlets and trying to get an eye on the elusive German. There are hundreds of islands along the coast and it was felt aboard the Newcastle that it would be a matter of luck if they came up with the Dresden. The Newcastle was four or five knots faster than the Dresden and armed with heavier guns. With the Newcastle were operating the Japanese cruisers Asama, Hizen and Izumo and the battleship Australia. The last-mentioned has gone to European waters and probably a month ago had joined the grand fleet of Admiral Jellicoe.

The Dresden was a ship of 3,544 tons displacement and carried a crew of 350 men. She had a complement of twelve 4.1-inch, four 2.1-inch guns and four machine guns. The point where she was run down was 400 miles directly west of Valparaiso in the South Pacific Ocean.

AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Vancouver, March —, 1915.

Mr. E. V. Ling,
Honorary Secretary St. John Ambulance Association, Prince Rupert, B. C.

Dear Sir—We beg to acknowledge receipt from your centre of One Hundred and Forty-Three Dollars and Fifty Cents ($143.50) to be applied to the St. John Ambulance Brigade Hospital.

The executive committee of the B. C. Council desires to express to you and all the friends of the association at Prince Rupert their heartiest thanks for so liberally supporting this good cause.

Yours faithfully,
F. C. McTAVISH,
Honorary Secretary B. C. Council

St. John Ambulance Association.

MANY CONSERVATIVES JOIN LIBERAL RANKS FOR COMING CONTEST

Large Number Attend Meeting of Ward Five Liberal Association and Will Support Party.

Vancouver, March 17.—A meeting of the Ward Five Liberal Association was held on Saturday evening in the A. O. F. Hall, corner Tenth Avenue and Main Street, to appoint delegates to the nominating convention to be held on March 19. The gathering was one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever held by the association in Mount Pleasant and included among its numbers some who had previously opposed the Liberal party but who were now firmly convinced that the time had arrived for the complete overthrow of the McBride-Bowser oligarchy at Victoria.

One of these went so far as to say he would furnish a substantial list of those in the ward who were going to join hands with the Liberal party and that the dissension in the Conservative ranks was spreading so rapidly that the present leaders had lost control and were hunting new timber but that it was too late.

The required number of delegates and alternates having been selected, the meeting proceeded to discuss possible nominees at the convention. A number of names were mentioned and a feeling was manifested that a Ward Five name should go before the convention and Dr. J. A. Graham and Alderman C. N. James were proposed, but neither would declare their intention of accepting this request. No formal resolution was adopted pledging the delegates but all were agreed that M. A. Macdonald and Ralph Smith were a certainty and that Mr. P. Donnelly, Principal McKay, Mr. Gordon Drysdale and Alderman McIntosh, if they allowed their names to be placed in nomination, were worthy of their support.

The work necessary for the coming campaign was gone into very fully and the ward is already divided into sections with a chairman and workers in each. Dr. W. D. Murray was appointed chairman of ward organization.

MONSTER ATTRACTION AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

There is a big treat in store for those who go to The Majestic tonight. They will witness what the management claims will be the biggest and best program ever shown in this city for the money.

The first two reels of "The Black Box" will be shown. This serial is even better than "Lucille Love," which is saying a whole lot. "Changed Lives" is a drama in three reels which should please the most critical. The animated weekly, with all the latest war news, and a screaming comedy will complete the splendid program.

The orchestra will render Irish selections in honor of St. Patrick's Day.

KAISERS PLANS ALL BROKEN UP

War Lord Had Intended a Fresh Dash on Calais but Met With Defeat.

Rotterdam, March 17.—Information from the frontier indicates that the British success at La Bassee has thrown the whole of the German right wing line into a remarkable state of activity. Men are being hurried from all garrisons and from some of the coast places to stop the advance of the British. For days they had been collecting along the Yser, expecting that the British would attempt to throw them back there, but hoping a quick concentration would give them the advantage of the initiative. A counter plan contemplated a move northwest in the Dixmude region in the hope of cutting off the Allies along the coast at Nieuport, and at the same time trying to push a wedge through in the neighborhood of Ypres. Such importance was attached to this fresh dash for Calais, nothing short of which is expected to satisfy the German people's craving for victory, that the Kaiser himself went in the hope of giving greater sting to the attack of his legions, but the tremendous attack of the British, south of this region, forestalled them, once more robbed them of the initiative, and threw out of gear all their plans. In order to meet the irresistible advance of the British, troops were hurried with the greatest speed from the Yser. So serious was their position regarded that one story from the frontier credits the German General Staff with holding a hasty midnight council in a small village in the immediate rear of their lines, at which the Kaiser is said to have been present.

CARMINE PONBOMBIE WANTED A MATE

It looks as if there were somebody around town who wanted to get a new supply of boots for the Canadian soldiers. At any rate, Louis Tromper had his shoe shop broken into a few nights ago and everything in sight taken.

Yesterday a man giving the name of Carmine Ponbombie walked into the shoe shop of McRae & McLeod and asked them to make him a mate for a boot he carried in his hand. Mr. McRae at once thought of Louis Tromper's loss and stepped to the door and called Constable Grady. Sam told the man he needn't get a mate for that boot, as he had the mate at the Police Station, and invited him to come up and have a look. Carmine started off all right but after going a few steps he got suspicious of his companion and "beat it." Sam is big and heavy but you bet he can run and before long he again had Carmine by the neck and this time landed him safely behind the bars.

The case was up in the Police Court today. Mr. Tromper swore the boot was his and also that Carmine had been in his place looking at his boots a few days before the robbery. Wm. McRae told of the man wanting him to make him a mate for the boot he had. The case was adjourned till tomorrow.
