"THE BLACK BOX" STILL DRAWING FULL HOUSES

The Majestic Theatre last night again had difficulty in seating the crowd which turned out to see the third episode of "The Black Box." The doings of Quest, the wonder-worker, were watched with breathless interest throughout.

The "Animated Weekly" depicted ice sports near New York, a parade of the Australian troops, clever cartoons by Hy Mayer, etc. "Admission, Two Pins" brought out some clever child actors and kept the audience grinning, while "The Midnight Alarm" showed a glorious mixup, with a comic police force and fire brigade doing knockabout stunts.

The management announces a great holiday attraction for Friday and Saturday, the chief item being a four-reel drama entitled "The Invisible Power."

LADIES ARE BUSY.

The ladies of the St. John Ambulance Association met last night at Mrs. McMullin's and finished the work of making bandages, etc., from the linen donated. Two large parcels containing the following articles were got ready for shipment by express on Saturday morning's train: 9 large sheets, 20 draw sheets, 4 pillow cases, 1,361 face cloths, 387 handkerchiefs, 8 abdominal binders, 5 nightshirts, 4 face towels, 36 poultice and splint cloths, 1 nurse's apron, 4 packages fomentation cloths, 60 triangular bandages, 6,000 mouth wipers, 108 assorted roller bandages.

The ladies wish to thank all who so kindly helped them make the donation such a splendid one, and also Mr. Leek and the "Cadets" who so willingly assisted in collecting the linen.

The sum of $16 was collected and forwarded to the Red Cross Society.

CHARLES CHAPLIN, THE FUNNIEST MAN ON EARTH

King of Moving Pictures Comedies at The Westholme Friday and Saturday.

The first of the new Essanay two-reel comedies featuring Charles Chaplin, the eccentric comedian who made the Keystone comedies famous, will be shown Friday and Saturday at the Westholme Opera House. It is a scream from start to finish and proves conclusively that Chaplin's fame rests entirely on his own personal merits.

"His New Job" is the significant title of the new play and while the so-called slap-stick element is prominent, there are also many bits of humor of a more refined character. At any rate, it will make you laugh as you never laughed before and that is the sole object which the producers had in view and in this they have certainly succeeded.

Another picture on tomorrow's program that deserves special mention is a rural comedy entitled "When a Man Loves," with the celebrated Mary Pickford in the leading role. This eminent actress is justly celebrated for her excellent work in rural comedies and in this line of work she certainly has no equal on the American stage.

A new Hearst-Selig Gazette and a particularly fine scenic completes the program.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church will hold a Violet Tea in the church hall, Fourth Avenue East, on Saturday, April 3, from 2 to 6 p. m. There will be a good musical program, Easter novelties. Home cooking, with special attractions for the men. 76-79

THE TRAGEDY OF THE PRINCESS PATRICIAS.

The Fair Sponsor and the Slain Commanding Officer.—This picture shows Her Royal Highness beside Colonel Farquhar, who at the time was military secretary to the Duke of Connaught. This position he resigned on the outbreak of war to command the regiment which bears the Princess' name. He is the third member of the Governor General's household to be killed at the front.

PREMIER MCBRIDE IN TROUBLE—NO HELP TO COME FROM OTTAWA

Columbia, and Rogers knows that McBride is his rival for the Canadian High Commissionership job.

No Fatted Calf.

How Premier McBride is viewed in some Conservative quarters here is seen from the following editorial, which appeared last Saturday in the Ottawa Citizen (Conservative):

"Sir Richard McBride, as a private citizen, will be a very welcome visitor to Ottawa at any time, but as Premier of British Columbia, the Dominion government would seem to have good reason to look upon Sir Richard's periodic visits with anything but an ardent desire to kill the fatted calf. Coupled with his latest pilgrimage to this Mecca of political patronage, there is a revival of the rumored retirement of Hon. W. J. Roche as Minister of the Interior and Sir Richard is mentioned as a possible new Cabinet timber."

"It would surely be an astonishing thing to the people of Canada at this time to find the government weakening itself by any such change. Next thing would be to look out for ex-Premier Flemming and Sir Rodmond Roblin in Ottawa to take the places of Hon. C. J. Doherty and Sir George Foster. Sir Richard, McBride's administration of provincial affairs in British Columbia can hardly be said to have done much to strengthen the credit of Canada in Britain or elsewhere."

"Certainly, wherever the Dominion government has been dragged into the British Columbia arena it does not seem to have come out with a greatly enhanced reputation. Now the birthright of natural resources of the people of the Coast would seem to have been squandered to the limit, because a government long afflicted with bankruptcy in public spirit is at last face to face with fiscal bankruptcy, too. The policy of bond guarantees and subsidies and land grants to privileged monopoly, and jail terms for deluded British miners could not end in any other way but fiscal and political bankruptcy. When the next Federal Cabinet reconstruction is undertaken by the political leaders it may be borne home to them that a revaluation is taking place in public opinion. In future moral values will count for more than in the past."

JOHNSON IS FAVORITE OVER JESS WILLARD

Havana, Cuba, April 1.—Large crowds are watching Jack Johnson and Jess Willard daily in their training for the heavyweight championship battle on April 5. Close to 5,000 spectators, a large percentage of them women, witnessed the Sunday afternoon training at the Stadium and Miramar, respectively.

Willard showed at the Palm Garden, Miramar. The challenger worked for two hours—equivalent to forty-five rounds of boxing—at the pulleys, punching the dummy, wrestling and shadow boxing. There were no sparring bouts owing to the hard hammering his partners received yesterday. He finished strong and in good wind. His early morning road work consisted of four miles in a series of sprints.

Johnson drew more than 3,000 spectators and pleased the crowd with his fast and heavy hitting and clever footwork. His sparring partners were all glad when their turns ended.

Johnson was on the road in the morning, "doing about six miles jogging and sprinting alternately. This was the hardest work of the week and his condition was better than for the past few days.

A feature of the day was the visit which President Menocal paid to Willard's camp. He expressed admiration for the young giant, although he had previously wagered $100 on Johnson. He was accompanied by Police Commissioner Duque Estrada, who placed $500 on Johnson yesterday. Many wagers have been laid, the odds varying from two to one to three to one, with Johnson the favorite. The largest bet to date is $3,000 to $1,000.

Get on the List!

Anybody who is a registered voter in British Columbia can be transferred to the local list providing he does it forty days before election. As the election date has not been announced there may still be time for this.

Anyone who is not registered and who is six months in the province should apply before April 4, when the new Census of Revision will be held. This will enable him to vote in June if the Federal election is held then.

Apply to L. W. Patmore, G. R. Naden, Williams & Manson, or any other commissioner.
