ITEMS OF SPORT

Announcement is made from Boston that Pitcher Sam Frock has been sold to the Atlanta Southern League club for $2,000.

Seventeen home runs have been made on the Philadelphia National League grounds this season. The Phillies have made eleven of them.

Think this over and you will get a clew to the value of one man to a ball team: Ty Cobb, in one game, scored from first base on a single, scored from second on a wild pitch and stole home with a winning run.

Nick Williams is still a bit peeved over the way the umpires treated him in the North, and for that matter so are a number of the other managers. With one or two exceptions, President Lindsey seems to have assembled a staff of incompetents.

John T. Bush, owner of the Giants, has heeded the protest filed by the manager of the New Orleans club, of the Southern League, and Frank Manush, who was released to Newark, will go back to his old club. Manush was drafted from New Orleans, and under the rules that club has the first call on his services if released.

The exit of Pitcher Jack Pfeister from the National League recalls the days when he was pitching some swell games for Spokane. He was with the San Francisco club in the Pacific National and with the smash-up went to the Middle West, finally landing with the Chicago Cubs, where he has been prominent until last season.

Gloom has fallen as a heavy pall over the fight fans of Vancouver as a result of the Vancouver Athletic Association, incorporated, having called off all future athletic exhibitions which were billed to be held here during the next two months. The managers of the athletic association are much disappointed themselves, but as there has been so much opposition to the contests from a certain element in the city, it was decided to be a losing game to attempt to continue.

The greatest of all natural fighters, of course, is Jack Johnson, and the best things in his repertoire are the uppercuts with which he times his men so fearlessly and faultlessly. It was thought after seeing the way he butchered fellows like Jim Flynn and Tommy Burns with his lifting punches, that he was only poison to short men, but, after that unfortunate affair at Reno, we know differently.

It is announced that Billy Papke, the American middleweight, and Jim Sullivan, the English champion, have signed articles in London for their twenty-round match for the world's championship on June 6. The papers provided that the fight is to be for $10,000 and a side bet. Eugene Corry will be referee.

There is also talk that Owen Moran will be brought to the coast. Moran is perhaps the only boxer in the world who smokes cigarettes while training for a fight. The little Briton likes to drag at the harmless-looking little pills, and he smokes when and where he pleases, as a general rule.

Willie Keeler has "come back." The little fellow is playing great ball at Toronto these days. He is hitting with his usual skill and has plenty of speed in running the bases. In his first four games he made ten hits. Keeler appeared to be all in when the Highlanders let him out a year ago, and even as a Giant he lacked sufficient form to warrant his appearing as a regular. But with his old chum, Joe Kelley, he has become rejuvenated and is hitting up a fast pace. Kelley has instilled the veterans, Tim Jordan and Bill Bradley, with renewed vigor.
