DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

Darn Socks to Endow College

The co-eds at Swarthmore College are taking all sorts of odd jobs in order to raise the $80,000 needed to complete a college endowment on June 7. They have scraped up $30,000.

During their spare time the co-eds act as nurse girls for the matrons in the vicinity of Swarthmore. Some mend socks at 5 cents a hole, no matter what the size of the hole.

Others make beds on a graduated scale of prices. For turning the mattresses they charge 5 cents, but they will put on the sheets in any old way for 2 cents.

Sam Langford and Joe Jeanette have signed articles for a finish fight in Paris early in June for purse of $10,000.

Stanley Ketchel was a born fighter, with his lightninglike shifts and his ambidexterous delivery. He had a peculiar manner of maintaining his balance when his fiercest swings went wild and every battle he engaged in kept the spectators on the jump from first CANADIAN

Sam Langford is another natural fighter, but, while his notions may Winnipeg $92.00 be original, his style seems to Toronto......119.10 be a blend of Joe Wolcott's and Jack Johnson's. He is all three J. G. > It is worthy of note that the most effective of the natural fighters this country has known during the past fifteen or twenty years were colored men. Of these none had greater vogue than Joe Wolcott, who, on account of his peculiar build, peculiar talents and his particular effectiveness when sent against men taller and heavier then he, was sometimes called "Joe, the Giant Killer." Overhand blows were Wolcott's long suit, and he could deliver them in a notably damaging way when his frame was flattened against
