

FREE TRIP ROUND THE WORLD

We have just arranged with one of our clients to place forty-two lots on the market under exceptional advantages to the purchasers. The lots are some of the best in Sections 7 and 8. The prices are as low as any on the market, and the terms so easy—monthly—that anyone can buy. Along with this exceptional offer, each lot admits the purchaser to a drawing for a FREE TRIP ROUND THE WORLD. If you hold the lucky ticket the trip is yours; or you can surrender it for a cash consideration. The chances are good—one in forty-two. Come in and investigate.

H.F. McRAE AND COMPANY

AN ARMY "FAREWELL."

Ensign Johnstone and Family Leaving for Moosejaw on Sunday Express Their Good Will to Rupert in Citadel Last Night.

To bid farewell to Ensign Johnstone, whose work for the Salvation Army in this city since January 25 last year, has been so effective and so popular, a bright gathering of his many friends assembled last night in the Salvation Army Citadel. Mr. and Mrs. Johnstone presided, with their little boy, and after a splendid programme had been rendered, including songs by Messrs. Davey, Clapperton, Brown and Russell, expressed their regret at leaving Prince Rupert owing to the ensign's health.

Ensign Johnstone's energies last fall founded the S. A. Citadel and it is with a feeling of great indebtedness to the people of Prince Rupert for exceptionally kind treatment that Ensign Johnstone leaves. He is as popular here as he was in Dawson, where he worked for two years, travelling with a dog team to do his unsparing work, and leaving warm memories behind. It is now nine years since Ensign Johnstone joined the Salvation Army at Great Falls, Mont. He goes now to Moosejaw, where he is certain to make good, as he has done in Prince Rupert.

Besides his connection with the Salvation Army, Ensign Johnstone was a prominent Odd Fellow, and a farewell ceremony to him in his capacity of Junior Past Grand was held the other night in the K. of P. Hall. The ensign expressed his great regret at leaving the lodge of the Prince Rupert Odd Fellows, at that meeting, and last night again addressed all Odd Fellows present at the Citadel "Farewell," thanking them particularly for help and friendship during his stay here.

Ten Days Missing

Ten days ago D. McKinnon and Willie Cornish started for Porcher Island from Prince Rupert in a small open pasoline launch belonging to Mr. McKinnon. They have never been seen or heard of since, and growing anxiety has been felt regarding them. Today Chief Owen arranged to send out a launch at once to search for trace of the missing men. It is possible that stress of weather may have driven them to shelter, but as they had no guns or provisions fears are still felt for their safety.

Special Notice

An important meeting of the Prince Rupert Choral Society will be held in the Presbyterian church, 4th ave., on Monday, Nov. 20th, at 8 p.m. All members specially asked to attend, new members heartily invited.

Funeral of Mike Chacuk

The funeral of Mike Chacuk took place this morning from E. L. Fishers funeral chapel, proceeding to the Catholic Church, where mass was held. Interment took place at Garden Island, Rev. Father Hartman officiating.

CONSERVATIVES HAD HOT TIME

156; Frank E. Cullin, 156; J. H. Hilditch, 144; Dr. Quinlan, 137; W. J. McCutcheon, 134.

There was some confusion at the outset. Mr. Lannic demanded that every candidate for executive position should be allowed five minutes' free speech. It was found that there were fifty-five candidates, so that was refused. The reduction of the time limit to one minute by the mover proved equally futile, and they finally decided to cut out the speeches altogether. Alderman Clayton had been making his voice heard once or twice in defence or explanation of his remarks at a certain other Conservative gathering. Mr. Swift, too, had sharply criticised the retiring executive, and Mr. Lannic was frequently on his feet, talking with some support from his side of the hall, and some derision from a solid central phalanx.

Alderman Newton said never a word, but sat glum in the back rows. The hall doors were guarded stringently, in manner rather belying the cordial "Welcome" motto over the main entrance. Each doorkeeper had a list of "the elect," like assistant recording angels at the gates of Heaven, and all who bore not the cabalistic card of admittance were rejected if their names were not found on the list of the elect.

Two kegs of beer formed an important feature of the evening's entertainment. Almost to a man, the entire city pay-roll was represented, and the staunch Conservative shoulder of the ditch laborer jostled the equally soundly convinced Conservative city hall employee. Many nationalities were there united in the kindly arms of Contented Conservatism, Greek, Montenegrin, Slav, Scandinavian, American. With song and story, and an imitation of telephone conversations in a certain newspaper office (not the Daily News) the time passed merrily during the counting of the ballot, and at midnight the meeting broke up in good order, leaving several empty bottles, and many shattered hopes, behind.

Choicest liquors and cigars at the Savoy.

AT THE THEATRE

There was nothing lonesome about Lonesome Town at the Empress theatre last night. The three hoboes, who decided to lay claim to the ownership of the lonely town of Watts, kept the fun going pretty lively. Their trio "Lonesome Town," was enough to make Port Essington live up.

In a pretty ingenue part, Miss Drena Mack added to the enjoyment. Her song "There's a big cry baby in the moon," explained why it rains sometimes in Rupert, in a way that charmed everybody. Joe Kemper's pleasant tenor voice was heard again to advantage in the song "The world is full of women's eyes," and the chorus of girls on the darkened stage with electric lights concealed in their fans made the hit of the evening. The chorus also distinguished itself in a clever Indian dance and chorus.

Tonight the piece is to be Cupid's Handicap, a story of college life and athletics, which affords scope for some good songs and clever acting.

To Be Buried Tomorrow.

The body of Charles Berger, the Swedish workman who was killed in the tunnel at Mile 44 last Saturday, is to be buried tomorrow at 10 o'clock at Garden Island. Hayner Bros. are in charge of the funeral.

Applications will be received up to November 25th, 1911, by the Board of Directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association from women wishing to take a full course of training in nursing.

The Cetriana left Wednesday afternoon for Vancouver. At the same hour 3 p.m., the Prince Albert left for Port Simpson, the Naas River and Stewart. The Albert will take up the Islands run for the Prince John on Thursday.
