KAHANAMOKU SWIMS
TO 100-YARD RECORD Honolulu Wonder Sets Work of 53 3-5 Seconds for Distance.
Word has just reached here from Sydney, N. S. W., of a wonderful swimming feat by Duke Kahanamoku, the Honolulu wonder, who is the present Olympic champion for the 100 metres.
The Duke swam 100 yards in the marvelous time of 53 3-5 seconds; and these figures dwarf anything heretofore accomplished, whether on a straightaway course or with a turn.
Once before, in tidal salt water at Honolulu, Kahanamoku swam 100 yards in 55 2-5 seconds. Using four turns in a fresh water bath, C. M. Daniels swam 100 yards in 54 4-5 seconds, and that was the best time recorded for the "century" previous to Kahanamoku's new performance.

SIR DOUGLAS MAWSON BELIEVES CANADA SHOULD HAVE OWN NAVY

SPEAKS OF PART AUSTRALIAN NAVY PLAYED IN THE WAR—BRITAIN COULD NOT HAVE SENT FIRST CLASS SHIPS FOR DOMINION'S DEFENCE.

Toronto, Jan. 28.—That Canada should control her own navy and have representation on an Imperial Federation, is the pronounced contention of Sir Douglas Mawson, the eminent Australian scientist and explorer who addressed the members of the Empire Club at Dunning's yesterday. President R. J. Stuart presided. Col. Con. J. S. Hendrie (Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, was present.

Speaking on a variety of subjects bearing on Imperialism, Sir Douglas referred to the part being played in the present war by the overseas Dominions. He declared that the Motherland is proud of her sons in this hour of need, and that the sons are proud of their opportunities of rendering service. "The task of Australia and New Zealand is apparently to keep the Turks out of Egypt, and they'll do it," he declared, amid applause.

"Regarding the sea forces," continued Sir Douglas, "we are proud of our navy." (Laughter.)
"What about the Canadian navy?" interposed a voice. The laughter became more hearty, and Sir Douglas indulged in a broad smile.

Imperial Federation.
"We are one with you in regard to the Imperial Federation, on which all overseas dominions should have representation," he declared, "and we believe that the Imperial navy should be augmented by the colonial navies when danger is threatened, but the Empire is composed of autonomous states, complete in themselves, and the control of their own armies and navies develops a greater sense of responsibility and engenders a truer national spirit.

"Recent events have proved the righteousness of Australia's position. Her own navy, including the Dreadnaught Australia, forced the late Admiral Von Spee to keep his hands off Australian ports. If we had relied on assistance from the Imperial navy we could have only been spared the third-rate ships under present or past circumstances, which would have meant that the formidable German navy which was stationed at Kaio-Chau could have dealt us some serious blows.

Japanese Helpful
"New Zealand's position during the presence of the German fleet in those waters was very different to Australia's. That country had made contributions to the Imperial navy and, therefore, could not protect itself for the time being, and was in a 'blue funk' all the time, because the British ships in those waters were not of the first class. But the Japanese navy rendered very valuable assistance."

Sir Douglas Mawson declared that he believed in universal military training, not conscription in the true sense of the term. "I don't believe a man should be made to fight unless he either loves a scrap or feels the moral obligation," he declared. "Compulsory military training has proved successful in Australia.

years of age required to drill one hour per week, with two weeks per annum under canvas, and the efficiency of that plan was am-

INDEPENDENCE FOR
ISLANDS PROMISED
Complete Freedom for Philippines, With Proviso, Written Into Jones Bill.
Washington, Feb. 2.—A promise of complete independence for the Philippines, when "in the judgment of the United States the people of the islands shall be fitted therefor," is contained in a revision of the preamble to the pending bill to enlarge the self-government of the Filipinos, adopted by the Senate committee.

Text of Preamble.
The text of the preamble says:
"It is desirable to place in the hands of the people of the Philippines such an increasing control of their domestic affairs as can be given them without in the meantime impairing the sovereignty of the United States in order that by the use and exercise of popular franchise and governmental powers, they may be the better prepared to assume fully the responsibilities of complete independence, which it is the purpose of the United States to grant, when, in the judgment of the United States, the people of the Philippine Islands shall be fitted therefor."

Bill Favorably Reported.
After adopting the preamble, which was written by Senator Kenyon, of Iowa, the Philippine Committee voted 10 to 3 to report the bill as amended, with the recommendation that it be passed.

In the Jones bill, as it passed the House, the preamble declared that it had always "been the purpose of the people of the United States to withdraw their sovereignty over the Philippine Islands and to recognize their independence as soon as a stable government can be established there."

The bill may be reported to the Senate within a few days. Administration senators generally think there is no chance for its passage at this session.

Same Old Reason.
Briggs—We are coming around to see you this evening.
Griggs—That's right; but do me a favor, old man. Don't let your wife wear her new spring suit; I don't want my wife to see it just now.
Briggs—Why, man alive! That is just why we are coming.

VICTORIA IS ACTIVE.
Public Feeling Stirred Over the Prospect of Losing Mobilization.
Victoria, Jan. 2.—The proposals which are being endorsed by public bodies in Vancouver to have the third contingent mobilized in Vancouver has stirred public feeling in Victoria.
Alderman Porter stated that he would bring the matter up in the City Council and have every step taken to check what would be a serious loss to this community.
Disappointed.
"Do you find that set of books you bought interesting?"
"Not very," confessed the man who tries to improve himself.
"But I'd feel better about it if the man who comes around to collect were as good an entertainer as the one who sold me the books."

A NEWSPAPER
for Prince Rupert and Northern B.C.
The Daily News goes into nearly every home in Prince Rupert. It is the popular newspaper of the city because it is clean and reliable. It has all the news of the city, and keeps in touch with events and topics interesting to Northern British Columbia. It treats these subjects with moderate optimism and reliability.
The Daily News is the most valuable paper to advertisers because it is read by the buying public.
It has a bigger circulation than any other paper in the city. It is read by the class of people the advertisers want to talk to.
