Five-à-Side Play in Connection With Fair Sports Last Night Proved Interesting

Another interesting innovation n the special Fair Week sports his year is the five-a-side football competition which commenced last evening at Acropolis Hill grounds, Merchants and Canadian Legion A. ceams qualifying to meet in the final scheduled for this evening.

In the first game Merchants deleated Spaniards 3 to 1, in the second Canadian Legion A. team deeated Regiment 3 to 1 and, in the third, Canadian Legion A. beat Canadian Legion B. 2 to 1. The Merhants-Spaniards game was tied one-all at full time, the Merchants winning in overtime. This game was marred by accident when E. Webster of the Merchants had the nisfortune to break his leg as a result of which he is now in hospi-

Jackie Cooper and "Chic" Sale Fine in "When a Feller Needs a Friend" at Capitol

Popular little Jackie Cooper plays a stirring characterization in "When Feller Needs a Friend" which is the week-end feature on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here. The child actor is co-starred in the film with Charles "Chic" Sale.

The various adventures of Limpy, whose crippled leg makes him an outcast and a moral coward, and this final fight to overcome a disastrous inferiority complex make this laughs and tears to parents and children alike.

Highlights of the plot include sham battle in which Limpy proves himself a helpless coward, a secret Commercial Class north from Vancouver via Powell fishing expedition on which "Chic" River and Ocean Falls, C. N. R. Sale reveals some amazing fish steamer Prince George, Capt. Neil stories, the quarrel between Sale McLean, arrived in port at 9:30 this and Limpy's parents because the Pete Doherty and Charles Barker morning with passengers, mail and old man refuses to mollycoddle the School freight. After discharging, the ves- crippled youngster, the dramatic sel will move up to the local dry scene in which rowdies attempt to dock where she will be tied up for stone the old conductor, the episode the winter. Members of the crew in which Limpy first asserts himwill proceed to Vancouver on the self and, finally, the spectacular Prince Rupert on Thursday night fight by which he regains his selfrespect and overcomes his inferiority complex.

Entertained at Rotary Luncheon

Members of the Rotary Club were entertained yesterday at the lunch hour by a group of young people from the Junior Choir of First Presbyterian Church under the leadership of John E. Davey.

Bert Cameron played two excellent selections on the violin, Miss Betty Cameron gave two very pleasing contralto vocal selections; Miss Elizabeth McLeod gave two humorous readings and Miss Betty Woods 23°C sang twice very sweetly. Mrs. J. S. Black accompanied the singers.

At the conclusion President 120 George Woodland expressed the thanks of the club to the young performers who he declared gave Doc promise of much greater things for
