Would Send Many Settlers to Canada FORMER EMPEROR FINDS HIMSELF IN FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES

C. Agent General in London Urges a Redistribution of the Population Throughout Empire

PRINCE RUPERT, Oct. 15.—F. C. Wade, Agent-general for British Columbia, has written to the press emphasizing the urgent need for a redistribution of the population of the Empire. He points out that at the present time support fewer than 10 persons to the square mile as against 618 to the square mile in England and Wales.

Wade declares that Western Canada is rapidly becoming a desert and asks how long Canada can escape effective immigration from the United States continues to drain from the United Kingdom and if Americans continue to monopolize our principal natural resources and monopolize our labor.

He is, he says, to pump in the white people whose numbers are in accord with British traditions. Arrangements to be made along the lines of the various soldier settlement schemes.

GRAVESTONES FOR WAR HEROES

More Than Thousand Being Made in Vancouver Under Government Direction.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 15.—More than 1600 headstones are now being prepared for shipment throughout British Columbia and Alberta. They will be made of stone from the Granite Island Quarries, 70 miles north of Vancouver, and prepared in the yards of Patterson, Chandler & Stephens, Limited, Vancouver. Contracts have just been let by Hon. Hugh Guthrie, minister of militia and defense, and by Col. M. C. Osborne, secretary, Imperial War Graves Commission. Delegates appointed by the government have completed inspection of Canadian quarries and their choice has fallen upon the Granite Island stone. R. V. Knowland, general manager of the quarries and the monument of mason firm, says the work will be rushed with all possible speed, but it will take months before all the headstones are completed. Names of dead veterans will be selected by the Imperial War Graves Commission and Mr. Knowland. The headstones will be of simple beauty and patriotic design, with the maple leaf and a brief record of the dead veteran's service. Below a cross will appear. Where the dead veteran belonged to another religious creed, there will be appropriate design.

For Jewish veterans there will be the sign of David and a Talitah text. At the base will appear the words "For His Country."

Prince Rupert will have her quota of these stones.

The headstones will mark the graves of veterans who actually died of war injuries, and a supply will be kept on hand for shipment as other veterans die from time to time.

Vancouver will shortly witness the unusual sight of hundreds of headstones leaving for all parts of the two provinces.

PROVINCIAL VOTERS' LIST TO BE USED

Registrars to Be Appointed in Every District to Add New Names.

The provincial voters' list as it stood before names were struck off on account of having failed to vote at the election last December is to be used as a basis of the voters' list for the forthcoming federal election. It will not be necessary for intending voters to register again if their names are already on this list, but for those who are not on this list two registrars in this city and one in every other polling district in the riding are to be appointed. Those whose names are not on the provincial list will be required to register in order to vote. The registrars will sit for six days, the date to be fixed by the returning officer.

The qualifications to vote at the federal election are that the intending voter be a British subject of the full age of 21 years and that he or she shall have been in the province for one year and in the district two months. Men and women are alike entitled to vote.

Advance polls are to be provided for railway employees, sailors and commercial travelers. Any of these who believes that because of necessary absence he will be unable to vote on polling day may vote in advance of polling day as provided.

Registrars and other election officials have not yet been appointed in this district nor have the quarters for the holding of the election been selected yet.
