Criticize Work of Detectives

Commissioner Montgomery Says Easy Matter to Secure Evidence Comox Avenue

Commissioner Montgomery had a few questions to ask at the meeting of the police board yesterday as to the recent operation of liquor board operatives. He was informed by Chief Vickers that he had no knowledge of their presence in the city until about a couple of days before the cases, in which they were informants, came before the local court.

Chief Vickers said also that he had no communication telling of their presence and the co-operation of the local police was not asked.

The discussion then took the form of severe criticism of the work of these operatives in which all the commissioners were agreed. It was pointed out that only eight cases were brought to court and that they all were from Comox Avenue, which did not require any great police strategy to secure evidence.

Commissioner Montgomery said there were cases in town which it might have been possible to secure a conviction against, if the operative had secured the co-operation of the local police, and these were difficult for the local force to convict as the officers were all well known locally. After further discussion it was moved by Commissioner Coombs and seconded by Commissioner Montgomery that the Attorney General be advised as to the work of the operatives, and the number of convictions secured, and the place the evidence was secured.

It was suggested by Commis-

LITTLE TALKING IS ALLOWED IN ARCTIC BY McMILLAN PARTY

Men Soon Tire of Each Other if Allowed to Converse Too Freely

CHICAGO, July 10.—It is not the cold, a lack of food or the loss of modern conveniences which make a trial of an Arctic expedition. It is solitude. The men get talked out. Commander Donald B. MacMillan on the expedition now en route expects radio to be a great relief, but will not appreciably lessen his system of discipline in inter-personal communication.

On previous trips MacMillan has forbidden members of the party to talk to each other during the day or at dinner time, and to keep away from each other as much as possible.

"The isolation of that vast region soon exhausts all timely resources," MacMillan explained. "It is not long before the men know the life history of each other, that of their families and relatives and virtually everything else in connection with the ordinary man's life. When those subjects have ceased to be topics of conversation and the few other sources have played out, the men become a bore to each other. That leads into an unfavorable morale. So we talk as little as possible and keep our counsel by being aloof."

REVISE PRAYER BOOK EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Proposal to Come Before Conference at New Orleans in October.

No Canadian Publication of Type But Country Flooded With Foreign

NEW YORK, July 10—Removal of "obey" from the marriage service; a shortened form of the Ten Commandments; elimination of the rubric, which forbids the use of the burial service over suicides, and omission from the Good Friday prayer invoking mercy, all reference to Jews, Turks and infidels are recommendations contained in the fourth report of the commission on prayer book revision of the Episcopal Church. Approval of the recommendations will be asked by the Triennial General Convention to be held at New Orleans next October.

A writer in the New York Independent declares that the United States has now taken the leadership away from France in the matter of salacious literature, says the Edmonton Journal. One has only to glance over the periodicals displayed on our news stands to realize how well founded is the claim. To what an extent they are circulating in the country of their production is shown by some figures which the article supplies. In one small town was found that one dealer sold 2,200 copies of every issue of a monthly devoted to the "nude in art" and to sex experiences.

Everywhere that investigation was made it was discovered that the majority of sales were of publications either of an out and out prurient type of bordering on the libidinous line. There has been little attempt in Canada to imitate our neighbors in this field but some protection should surely be given against the incursion into this country of so much of the steadily growing mass of such filth.
