This will be the first visit of the Calcutta to Prince Rupert. The sister ship Capetown, was here some years ago. Last year the Calcutta, after visiting eastern Canadian ports, proceeded to England for general overhaul.

COMPLEMENT OF 370 The cruiser has a complement of 370 officers and men. Her armament comprises five six-inch guns, two threeinch anti-aircraft guns and four threepounders. She has a maximum speed of thirty knots. Her speed proved of considerable value during naval encounters during the Great War.

Arrangements are being made to entertain the officers and men during their visit on the coast. Entertainments and dances will be held, while sport engagements also will be made. The Calcutta is the flagship of the Eighth Cruiser Squadron of the British North American station at Bermuda. Admiral Sir Walter Cowan, commanderin-chief, will be on the vessel.
