MUSIC LOVERS' NIGHT AT CAPITOL

Every Wednesday and Thursday Selected for Musical Program by Capitolians

In response to popular demand Jack de Jausserand and his Rupert Capitolians who have already created such a splendid impression among lovers of good music in the city, will offer a musical program every Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

This feature will continue weekly throughout the winter months, and the Capitolians have already commenced arranging weekly programs which will include compositions by the best known composers with a view to giving the music loving public of Prince Rupert the best possible in music. Tonight and Thursday the Capitolians will render Franz Liszt's "Second Hungarian Rhapsody" featuring Ewart Lyne at the piano.
