Man in the Moon

Keep your clothes brushed, your shoes shined and your finger nails clean and no one will know that there's anything wrong with your head.

There seems to be always a sensation of some kind. Now it is the Aquarian Foundation that is in the limelight.

Now that stool pigeons are abolished there are sure to be some kickers. As Jake says, there is nothing to prevent a regular police officer obtaining evidence in any manner he pleases.

There seem to be plenty of names coming before the Liberal Convention. I'm seriously considering nominating Jake for the job of candidate. He could stand being beaten about as well as anyone else.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

October 30, 1918

It is believed that the fisheries patrol steamer Galiano, Capt. Pope, has gone down with all hands on board off the south end of the Queen Charlotte Islands. The vessel sent in a S.O.S. call yesterday morning, stating that her holds were full of water. Since then she has not been heard from. Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co.'s trawler G. E. Foster, Capt. Fred Walters, has left for the rescue, also the G. T. P. tug Lorne.

The Duke of Devonshire Governor General, has purchased a large block of Victory Bonds in the present campaign.

William Church, eldest member of the family of Mr. and Mrs. George Church, both of whom have died of influenza, succumbed to the malady at the Prince Rupert General Hospital yesterday.
