Night's Boxing

Lively Card

League pennant race yesterday by Billy Bagshaw Beats A. B. Moore In Main Event

> Boxing fans who turned out at! the Exhibition Hall last night were treated to some lively bouts in which there were three knockouts. The card was held under the auspices of the R.C.N.V.R. and was staged for them by the local Eagles' lodge. Mayor Orme welcomed the officers and men of the visiting cruiser, H. M. S. Despatch. Thomas Clough introduced the referee, Lieut. Garrett, and the judges, Maj. Leith R. M., and Jack Judge.

The first bout of the evening was a three two-minute round affair between Young McLeod and Howie Keefe. McLeod showed better conditioning and earned a decision. Keefe was taken sick in the second round and did well to go the limit.

Able Seaman Melia won the decision over Pete Chenoski in the second fight. Melia had a decided edge all the way, and it surprised the fans to see Chenoski finish the Signalman Bastin won over Earl Batt by a knockout in the second round of their scrap. Batt had the edge in the first round and floored Bastin once. In the second round, during a fast exchange, Batt went tennis ball and racquet race in redown from a right to the side of the head. He took a nine count but came up. Bastin landed heavily to the solar plexus and Batt fell on the ropes and failed to get up at the count of ten.

The fourth bout was for four twominute rounds between Marine Curtiss and "Gorilla" Dutton. This match proved the liveliest on the card, with both men mixing well. Dutton floored Curtiss in the first Cream of Australia's Batsmen Were round but didn't seem to hurt him. His style of bobbing from side to side eemed to puzzle the Marine but in the second round he landed one on Dutton's chin and he took a count of nine.. He seemed to be tiring. In the third round Dutton went down for a seven count. He came back strong, however, and drove Curtiss kets were down for 285 runs. onto the ropes and then sent him through them for a nine count. the match during the afternoon. When he came up Dutton landed another and Curtiss didn't hear the bell ring, ending the round. In the fourth round Dutton forced the going and pounded Curtiss through the ropes where he took counts of south and sailed an hour or so the opening singles today in the nine on three different occasions, and the final gong saved him from a knockout, as he was sitting out- she will return tonight south- 2-6, 7-5, 6-4, 7-5. Henri Cochet deside the ropes with his feet inside bound. at the time. Dutton was awarded a popular decision.

Nina Gurvich won the semi-final over Able Seaman Lakin by a knockout in the second round. Lakin had the best of the first round and it looked as though he would put Gurvich away. In the second round Lakin landed a couple of hard rights to the jaw but Nina put over a right cross to the sailor's chin, that put him down for the count.

The Main Event In the main event, Billy Bagshaw won over Able Seaman Moore by a knockout in the third round. During the first two rounds Moore displayed some fine boxing to outpoint Bagshaw. In the third round Moore went down from a right that appeared to be low. He rolled around on the canvass in pain but finally got up and started again after being allowed to recover. If the blow wasn't low he should have lost the fight then as he didn't start to fight for over ten seconds, and if it had been low, he should have been given the call. He failed to cover up and Bagshaw put him down with a right to the chin. He got up but Bagshaw finished him with a right smash to the mid-section.

After the program, Thomas Clough, on behalf of the Eagles' Lodge, presented the sailors who fought, with individual medals and cups as momentos of their visit to Prince Rupert.
