= THE COSY CORNER =

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

PICTURESQUE SUMMER FROCK

room, is in close proximity to the private rooms of the Sovereigns, and has been constantly used for investitures and the reception of deputations. It was the favorite drawing-room of Queen Victoria, and was used every evening by King Edward and Queen Alexandra.

The second is called the Green Drawing-room, because it is entirely hung and furnished with green silk damask, and it contains some of the choicest treasures in the Royal possession. The cabinets round the walls are filled with the celebrated and historic service of porcelain made at Sevres for Louis XVI., the color of which is bleu du Roi, and the paintings of the figure-subjects are the work of celebrated artists.

The third and last is the Crimson Drawing-room where the visitors' tea is served, and on whose walls some interesting portraits of the daughters of George III. are hung, as well as two of the King's brothers, the Duke of Cumberland and the Duke of York, both by Sir Joshua Reynolds.

YOUR PLANTS NEED EXERCISE

Food. Fresh Air and Frolic for Flowers

Each new importation of French materials and each new output of domestic summer fabrics shows a decided preference for pink in every conceivable shade, with coral in the lead.

A stunning example of this is displayed in a model illustrated today. Lower part of bodice, sleeves and tunic are white striped coral pineapple cloth, trimmed with a double row of black satin bands and black silk tassels. Skirt and yoke of bodice are all-over embroidered batiste in same shade of pink and the raised waist line is girdled with black satin.

The huge hat accompanying this costume is pink Neapolitan with narrow brim facing and crown band of black satin and two coral plumes on left side.

Social Notes

Mrs. Kergin will not receive on Saturday nor again this season.

Mrs. W. M. Ward left this morning with her two children on the S.S. Prince Rupert for her old home in West Virginia where she will spend the next three months.

Mrs. George Sweet left today for a few weeks' visit to friends in Vancouver, Seattle and Victoria.

Mr. J. W. Scott, who has been salesman with Director, Cohen & Co., clothiers, for some time past, leaves on Sunday for Bassano, Alberta, to take over the management of the gents' furnishing and dry goods department in that town for Gallagher Bros.

Miss A. D. Cavendish, who has been with Mrs. C. V. Bennett for the past week left this morning on the S.S. Prince Rupert for New Westminster.

THE CRIMSON DRAWING ROOM

Luxurious Surroundings of Royalty at Windsor

The Crimson Drawing-room at Windsor Castle is the third in a suite of reception-rooms which lead to the dining room. The first, called the White Drawing-room, is in close proximity to the private rooms of the Sovereigns, and has been constantly used for investitures and the reception of deputations. It was the favorite drawing-room of Queen Victoria, and was used every evening by King Edward and Queen Alexandra.

The second is called the Green Drawing-room, because it is entirely hung and furnished with green silk damask, and it contains some of the choicest treasures in the Royal possession. The cabinets round the walls are filled with the celebrated and historic service of porcelain made at Sevres for Louis XVI., the color of which is bleu du Roi, and the paintings of the figure-subjects are the work of celebrated artists.

The third and last is the Crimson Drawing-room where the visitors' tea is served, and on whose walls some interesting portraits of the daughters of George III. are hung, as well as two of the King's brothers, the Duke of Cumberland and the Duke of York, both by Sir Joshua Reynolds.

ITEMS OF SPORT

The Scottish sports to be held in Victoria on June 3 will be the first to be held under the auspices of the amalgamated Scottish societies of British Columbia, and it is hoped to make them the best of the kind ever held in the capital.

The C. P. R. Cricket Club of Winnipeg has challenged for the J. Ross Robertson Cup, emblematic of the Canadian championship. The matches will be played in July at Toronto. A Vancouver team may send in a challenge for the championship cup after the international tournament next August.

The Toronto lacrosse team has lost the services of Billy Lavelle, the tricky home player, who was making good. He left for High River, Alta., Saturday night, where he has secured a good position.

Stanislaus Zyzbsko, the Polish wrestler, has just sailed for his native land after a successful tour in the U. S. A. In his final match here he easily scored two straight falls over Paul Sampson. Zyzbsko has been wrestling almost nightly and takes home many American dollars.

Catcher Schmidt, Detroit's mainstay behind the bat for some seasons, probably never will catch again for the Detroit Americans. His injured arm has not improved. Only twice has he appeared in the Detroit batting order this year, both times as a pinch hitter. In the last three games, in all of which pinch hitters were needed, he has been overlooked, even for that duty. The prize fight he engaged in last March is held responsible for his injury.

John Melville, manager of Al Kaufman, has agreed to match Kaufman against Jim Flynn for a ten round return bout at Milwaukee some time in June. Flynn, when here a few days ago, signed a contract to fight anyone the club could get to meet him, and Melville said that he thought Kaufman would sign the articles on terms offered by the local promoters.

The Frankford Club of Philadelphia, which will come through Western Canada this summer, has arranged the following fixtures:
August 24 or 25—Frankford vs. Winnipeg.
August 29 and 30—Frankford vs. Vancouver.
September 1 and 2—Frankford vs. Victoria.
September 4 and 5—Frankford vs. Seattle.
September 7 and 8—Frankford vs. Portland.

CALLA LILY CAKES

A New and Dainty Sponge Cake for You

Three fresh eggs beaten together, then add one tablespoonful of hot water; into this beat slowly one scant cup of granulated sugar. Add to the mixture one cup of sifted flour, one teaspoonful of baking powder, and one teaspoonful of vanilla, also a pinch of salt. Drop the batter by scant teaspoonfuls into buttered tins, forming round, flat cakes, not touching one another. Bake quickly, but not brown, as they must be soft and pliable. Press together from the outside while hot into the form of a lily. Fill the cavity thus formed just before serving with whipped sweetened cream, place a small piece of orange peel in the centre of the cream for the stamen, and use a strip of Angelica for a stem. This recipe will make forty-eight cakes, and served on a dessert plate to each guest with a cup of cocoa or coffee makes a delicious and artistic refreshment for an afternoon party.
