DOINGS OF THE STEAMERS

Boats Out, In, and Due Since Last Night

With the Prince Rupert this morning a large number of passengers left for the south. The City of Seattle calling last last night on her way south also took a number of passengers below.
In the small hours of the morning the Hazelton and the Operator left for up river taking a full passenger list and cargoes. Due tonight are the Camosun, and State of California from the south, and the Princess May is also expected from the north.

AFTER POLO CHAMPIONSHIP

English Cavalry Officers Make the Holders Feel Anxious

(Canadian Press Despatch)
New York, June 2.—The American grip on the international polo championship was given a shaking today by the challenging English Cavalry Officers in the first match for the trophy.

The score was Americans 4 1-2 goals; England 3. The play of the visitors was brilliant and dashing.
Some keen contests are looked for.

Classified - Advertisements

One of the best services the modern newspaper gives the public is in the classified advertisement columns. There buyer and seller, employer and worker, landlord and tenant, and a host of others meet on common ground. To put this modern convenience in reach of everyone the News will reduce its rate to a nominal price of a cent a word per insertion. Minimum charge of 25 cents. Here is our Classified Advertising Column for today. Watch it grow.

PRINCE RUPERT'S GOOD PROSPECT

been six weeks in that pestilential place when all were dead. Conditions now are very, very different. Sanitation is as nearly perfect as modern science can make it.

Once 40 Days Now 10 Hours

It means an outlay of $375-000,000 to complete the canal, but the difference in time between the steamer journey at fullest forced draught speed through the Magellan Straits, and through the completed canal, is as forty days to ten hours. It will take only ten hours for an ocean steamer to cross the Isthmus. The benefit of the canal to the world's commerce is of course evident. Among its less noticeable advantages is the fact that its effect will be to act as a wholesome check on transcontinental railways that might otherwise rack-rate transportation facilities.

Rupert Will Rejoice

From Prince Rupert's peculiarly advantageous position on the great trade route round the world, and the fact that the harbor here is so superb, Mr. Magee confidently predicts that Prince Rupert will naturally assume the place of honor as guest in the world-wide rejoicings when the Canal is complete. Fresh crowned with the achievement of her own nearer and dearer ambitions on the completion of the Grand Trunk Pacific, our city will be able most appreciatively to share in the jubilation of the world's commercial centres in 1915, the more so because the Panama Canal means to Prince Rupert an increase of seaward trade only to be paralleled by the prosperity brought from landward by the railway.

Mayor Manson Presided

With a graceful compliment to the present municipal government of Prince Rupert, which made Mayor Manson modestly hang his distinguished head, Mr. Magee concluded his interesting lecture.
The Mayor was unfortunately compelled to apologise for the slender audience and his apology constitutes a distinct rebuke to Prince Rupert. The address was given by Mr. Magee under the auspices of the Board or Trade the members of which realise the importance to Prince Rupert of the Panama Canal. But evidently present-day Prince Rupert prefers the picture show. It will be a different story in 1915.

HUMBOLDT CO. WIN THEIR CASE

White Pass Railway Must Now Climb Down

After three years of litigation, during which the case was carried to the court of appeal of the District of Columbia, the Humboldt Steamship Co., of Seattle, has won its fight against the White Pass and Yukon route, which was charged with discrimination in rates from Skagway to interior Alaska points. The ruling of the court of appeals will mean that all railroads operating in Alaska will be compelled to file a schedule of rates and classifications which will be open to the public in protection.

The court holds that Alaska is a territory of the United States within the meaning of the Act of Congress regulating commerce.

Up to 1905 the White Pass & Yukon refused to quote rates to Dawson, Fairbanks and other interior Alaska ports and refused to work in connection with the Humboldt Steamship company.

The Humboldt company was compelled to secure the local rates from Skagway to the interior, which it is alleged were higher than the through rate offered by the Alaska Steamship company and the Pacific Coast company.
