CAMPING OUT

Has your dinner lost its savor, Has your greeting lost its cheer? Is your daily stunt a burden? Is your laughter half a sneer? There's a medicine to cure you, There's a way to lift your lead, With a horse and saddle and a mile of open road.

Is your eyeball growing bilious? Is your temper getting short? Is this life a blind delusion, Or a grim, unlovely sport? There's a world of health and beauty, There's a heap that cannot fail, In a day behind the burros On a dusty mountain trail.

Come out, old man, we're going To a land that's free and large, Where the rainless skies are resting On a snowy mountain marge. When we camp in God's own country, You will find yourself again, With a fire and a blanket and the stars upon the plain! —Bliss Carman in The Reader Magazine.

CARING FOR FINE WAISTS

Some Laundry Hints That Every Woman Ought to Know and Practice.

By this season of the year lingerie waists are showing strain and must be carefully laundered to last until cold weather. Every woman should know how they are done to instruct her laundress. See that all repairs are made before the blouses are put into the wash.

Very fine ones last longer if not done in the general wash. Many women save a half dozen or more to be done at one time.

Make thick suds of lukewarm water and pure white soap and squeeze the blouse up and down in it. Rub as little as possible. If necessary, wash through a second suds.

Rinse out the soap through several waters, using a little bluing at the last. If the blouse is not to be starched, hang in the sun to dry, if the material is white; otherwise, dry indoors. Sprinkle half an hour before ironing and wrap in a clean towel. Use moderately hot irons and see that the ironing board is covered with clean muslin. Use an old blanket in several thicknesses, into which press embroidered parts. Put an extra muslin cloth over this.

A sleeveboard ensures quicker work. Without one use a small iron and there need be no creases. Iron the sleeves first.

Iron tucks and plain part of waist next on right side. Start at the shoulder, holding the tucks firmly with the left hand. Then turn blouse and iron lace and embroidery on wrong side.

Lace ruffles and edging should be pulled out after ironing to give a new soft look. Frills should be basted along bottom edge before being laundered, and when ironing begin at bottom, pulling gently at top so the plaits fall into place.

Most thin materials, save handkerchief linen, are improved by a thin starching. They keep fresh longer and take a better color. Sometimes this is supplied by dampening with a little cold starch water.

Another starch is made by making a paste with two teaspoons of starch and a little cold water, over which is poured a pint of boiling water, stirring until smooth. A drop of bluing added gives a better color. Dip blouse in starch, wring out at once, and hang out to dry.

Provide a number of coat hangers for the kitchen. String over a line and hang each blouse on it, instead of folding. As the folding hanger can be had for ten cents apiece, get a big supply and have enough to hang the waists in closets instead of putting them in bureau drawers.

ITEMS OF SPORT

Ad Wolgast is said to have remarked a few months ago that Owen Moran was the only one of his prospective opponents that he considered seriously.

Lord Conyngham, who was formerly a lieutenant in the Third Battalion, Duke of Edinburgh's Wiltshire Regiment, is one of the best known sportsmen in the whole of Ireland. He has three seats in Ireland; Slane Castle, the Hall, and the Lodge, the two latter in County Donegal.

Merritt Griffin, a representative of the Chicago A. C. at the Olympic games in London in 1910, and one of the greatest amateur discus throwers in the world, is today in a paralytic state from serious injuries sustained in a runaway accident. His condition is critical.

Calgary has only two men now in the charmed circle of .300 and over in the batting averages. Both of these are the big league timber—Wilson and Standridge. Duggan, Moran and O'Brien are close runners up, and have all fattened up their batting averages during the victorious series with Edmonton.

"Too much grease," according to Jim Sullivan's own statement, made the English fighter sick and was responsible for his recent defeat by Billy Papke. Sullivan said today he knows he can beat Papke, and would have done it if the American hadn't entered the ring with a pound or so of hog fat rubbed into his skin. Sullivan insists he will make Papke fight him again in the near future.

It is now almost an assured fact that when the football season starts in the Old Country, next September will see a third division of the football league. There is already a first and second division, and the organization of a third division is creating popular interest. The clubs so far which have signified their intention of joining this new league are as follows: Burslem P. V., Cardiff City, Chesterfield, Croydon Common, Crewe Alexandra, Darlington, Hartlepool United Lincoln City, Portsmouth, Rochdale, Rotherham Town, Southport Central, S. Shield Adelaide, South Liverpool, St. Helen's Town, Walsall.

LICENCE REQUIRED

Can't Keep Shop Without Even Way Out at Seal Cove

For running a little general fruit, grocery and "notion" store down at Seal Cove without having taken out a trader's licence G. McMillan was brought this morning before Magistrate Carss. He gave as his reason for the omission that he had thought his premises were outside the city limits. This was considered rather thin, but on payment of costs, and the cost of a licence McMillan was released with an admonition. A man Godstein, manager under McMillan, was also required to pay costs of court and to take out a trader's licence.
