GOOD PRINTING

Is a Persistent "Influence" Exerted in Your Behalf?

Every bit of printing that goes out to serve you makes "Some Kind of an Impression." Poor printing will leave a poor impression of its user as surely as would poor clothes, or poor store or shop or office. "Good" printing will leave upon every mind an impression wholly favorable of its user. Even if but one in a thousand of these "Impressions" really tips the scales for business, for orders, for you "Good Printing" will have thus paid for itself!

= THE COSY CORNER =
DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

FRESH FASHIONS

All the Latest Live Little Items From Gay Paris

For the cotton gowns the predilection is for colored embroideries. The colors of the embroideries are pink, rose, old blue, light blue, lavender and yellow.

Sleeves are short in all save the strictly tailored garments, and by short is meant a termination of the sleeve just at or an inch or more above the elbow.

Some of the new parasols are edged with narrow ostrich feathers and have a big bow of ribbon on the handle, also edged with feathers.

There is a new satin called felt satin. It is faced with woolen and makes a serviceable as well as elegant outer garment—either mantle, suit or coat.

Flowers of colored straw are popular as trimming. Black and red flowers have yellow centres and there are various striking color combinations. They represent edelweiss, dahlias, roses and poppies in natural tints and shapes.

THE LITTLE PLANT

Pretty Verses for the Children to Learn

In the heart of a seed,
Buried deep, deep,
A dear little plant
Lay fast asleep.

"Wake," said the sunshine
"And creep to the light."
"Wake," said the voice
Of the rain drops bright.

The little plant heard
And it rose to see
What a wonderful
Outside world might be.

Vegetable Salad

Three medium-sized boiled beets, two large boiled potatoes, one carrot, two hard-boiled eggs, and one lettuce. Cut up the vegetables in small pieces; add salt and pepper. Form the salad into a pyramid, and garnish the dish with the eggs cut in slices. This is nice to serve with cold meat on a hot day when you don't want even to boil potatoes.

Baked bean sandwiches are substantial and, made properly, palatable. Mash a cupful of baked beans, put with a large tablespoonful of minced roast or boiled ham, season with pepper and mustard. Rub smooth with softened butter. Butter thin slices of either white or brown bread. On one place a lettuce leaf, spread on the filling, lay over it another lettuce leaf, cover with the second slice of bread, and press lightly together.

PROFITABLE WHALING WORK

Very Busy Season at the Island Stations and Southwards—Many Whales Caught.

Whalers at Sechart, Kyuquot, Rose Harbor and Naden Harbor are all up to their neck in work, and the staffs at the stations are finding some difficulty in keeping the pace. Night and day shifts are the rule, and by the closing of the season no doubt the catch will have been nearly treble that of last year, which so far is the largest. There are nine whalers

THE IDEAL WIFE

Show This to Your Husband and Ask Him What He Knows About It?

Coming to the present are of wonderful woman, we find a modern, ancient (superannuated) philosopher defining the qualifications of an ideal wife. He specifies, amongst other delightful attributes, these—

Great good-nature and a prudent generosity.

A lively look, a proper spirit and a cheerful disposition.

A good face and figure, but not greatly beautiful; a moderate height, a good complexion, rather brown.

Young by all means; old by no means.

A decent share of common sense, seasoned with a little repartee; a small modicum of wit, but no learning.

Well, but not critically, skilled in her own tongue.

In spelling, a little becoming deficiency; by no means conversant with punctuation.

A more than tolerably good voice and a little ear for music; a capability of singing (in company), but no peculiar and intimate acquaintance with crochets and quavers.

Not always in the drawing-room, but sometimes in the kitchen; yet more skilled in the theory than in the practice of cooking.

Not entirely devoted to bridge, but a little given to chess.

Fond of lawn tennis, but ignorant of hockey and golf.

In conversation, a little of the lisp, but not of the stammer.—Vanity Fair.

Refreshing Sandwiches

Cucumber, tomato, and lettuce, separately or any two together, make refreshing sandwiches. Select small cucumbers, peel and slice them thin, discarding any obtrusive seeds. Leave in ice water for ten minutes or so, then drain quite dry. Spread the bread with amyonnaise dressing, and lay the cucumber on evenly. For lettuce sandwiches, use only the crisp tender leaves, wash, and dry them between cloths. Butter the lower slice of bread, place on it the lettuce, spread a thin layer of salad dressing on the upper slice, and press together.

Good for Picnics

Ham sandwiches are about the most popular of those with a meat filling. A good way of making the filling is to put some cold cooked ham through the meat chopper, season with pepper, a very little salt, and made mustard, then mix all smooth with butter. A cucumber pickle cut into very small bits is an appetizing addition. Tongue sandwich filling can be prepared in similar fashion, but leave out the cucumber, and instead marinate with a little lemon juice. Yolk of hard-boiled egg may be added to the tongue.

working in British Columbia waters and two of the Washington coast.

The total catch of all the vessels operated by the Canadian Northern Pacific Fisheries Company amounts nearly into the four figures, and all past records have been eclipsed. Two or three whales each a day is not thought to be any great piece of work as the whales are so plentiful.

The two new whalers, the Pateron and Moran, which are operating out of Grays Harbor, are doing exceptionally well, and although they have only been working a month, forty-three whales have been harpooned and placed through the regular process in order to obtain the valuable products.

ITEMS OF SPORT

The long standing dispute between Young Miller, the St. Paul middleweight, and Joe Carr, the Minneapolis wrestler, as to championship honors of the twin cities, will be settled at Nicolle Park on the night of August 16.

The Victoria lacrosse twelve is in the same position as the Westminster champions now; they have to win every game to get a chance at the silverware.

President Graham of the Pacific Coast League, placed a $50 fine and suspension for a week on Patsy O'Rourke, the manager of the Sacramento baseball club, who assaulted Umpire Hildebrand.

Joe Tinker of the Chicago Cubs, regarded as one of the best short-stops who ever lived, was fined $150 and suspended for the balance of the playing season, Manager Chance charging him with gross indifference and with insubordination. Behind the suspension of Tinker there are stories of disruption in the ranks of the Cubs.

Ted Sullivan, who has been a prominent figure in baseball for many years, is in Seattle. He says that he has purchased the release of Catcher Fournier from Vancouver for the Boston Americans. The price was not stated. "I took him for his hitting ability," said Sullivan. Mr. Sullivan will be in Seattle for about a week.

Tommy Burns, formerly world's heavyweight champion, who was badly injured last December in an interurban wreck, now finds himself in worse shape than immediately following the accident. Although the doctors who examined him at the time confidently expected that he would be all right in three months at the outside, it has now been nearly eight months since the accident occurred, and examination yesterday showed that he was no better off than he has been at any time since he left his bed.

Jim Jeffries, that other former world's heavyweight champion, en route for Alaska on a three months' hunting trip, has no other ambition than to return to that dear Los Angeles when he is through with the brown bear of Alaska and feed the chickens. He has no pugilistic plans for the future and will devote his energies to the personal enjoyment of James J. Jeffries. By a careful dodging of his many friends he was just able to catch the steamer Jefferson at Seattle on his way to Alaska. After his hunting trip is over he will return by way of Seattle.

Toronto, Aug. 14.—(Special)—Articles of agreement for a boat race for the championship of America between J. Hackitt and Eddie Durman have been received duly signed by former and seem to meet the demands of the Toronto sculler. Conditions call for a race of three miles with turn on the Rainy River on Thursday September 21st, referee to be mutually agreed upon. The race is for one thousand dollars a side.
