

FORGERY CASE WAS ON TODAY

Expert Evidence Differs Regarding Handwriting. Case will be Tedious.

Close attention is being paid to the handwriting specimens produced in connection with the forgery case at present being heard before Magistrate Carss. Evidence was given this morning by J. J. Sloan and Mr. T. Stewart, accountant, who examined the hand writing samples in court. It is evident that opinions differ regarding the handwriting.

Mr. Alex. Manson appears for the defence and the City Solicitor, Mr. Fred Peters, for the prosecution.

Accused Fred Clarke looks rather worried, but maintains his composure under the trying ordeal.

DEMAND FOR HALIBUT

"Maid" Fleet Always Busy—Reciprocity will Mean More Boats.

With about 7000 pounds of halibut the Fish Maid caught the S.S. Prince George this morning. The Old Maid is laid up with a broken crank shaft at present and in order to cope with the demand for fish from below it will be necessary for the Butterfield Mackie Company to run the gasoline boat Saga along with the Fish Maid until the Old Maid is repaired. Towed in by the Oceanic last Tuesday the Fish Maid just managed to ship 9000 pounds of halibut by the Rupert.

BRIGHT NEWS OF STEWART MINES

Salmon District River Promises Very Well—Several Rich Strikes Reported There Today.

Passengers passing south on the G. T. P. S.S. Prince George this morning and those arrived from Stewart are talking enthusiastically of the prospects of the Salmon River district. Some excellent strikes of ore have been made on the Salmon River recently—one account stating that ore assaying at $1800 per ton had been discovered there in good quantities.

The fact that rich average strikes have been made is certain, and that the ore so far has been found mostly on the Canadian side. All the mines on the Stewart district are making good without any sensational showings just at present. Shipments will be made before the snowfall this year.

SCHOOL RE-OPENED

Eight A. M. Headache Again Very Prevalent

That very prevalent malady among children—the 8 a.m. headache was very much in evidence this morning, because school re-opened after the long vacation. "It was an awful job to get them off" testify scores of mothers today and then some of these mothers go on to say how pleased they are that school has re-opened. This statement, however, is invariably followed with a sigh.

The building standing back from Seventh avenue which for two months has been blanketed with silence is today besieged by a horde of effervescent frolicsome kiddies.
