

The Soul of a Vision

So then—
My part is ended. Other men,
And women, too, still play their part,
With courage resolute and dauntless heart.

My broken comrade—
Seared by scars that time can not efface,
Is not the jest of fortune; for his aid
A nation's mighty forces doth provide.

And those who live—
To carry on our story down the years,
Face not their "quiet days" in bitter pain;
(Forgotten, now they've stilled the nation's fears)
Dwarfed by the lust of pride and selfish gain.

My Canada—
Thou fair land for whom great love
Inspired my youth to ancient sacrifice;
Grant that our serried ranks in realms above
May witness bear thee, worthy of the Price.

To Pay Debts of Honour

TO the Dead and to the richness of their dying,
we must give pause, and in humility confess a debt beyond redemption.

Before the altar of their sacrifice, Canada is consecrated to make its dominion worthy. The Torch that illumines Victory so dearly bought, must burn eternally. Each year of peace must record an added lustre to our heritage.

But to those who have come back in suffering, Canada owes a debt which money can, in part, repay.

It is a Debt of Honour. Canada was pledged to the end, that the wounded and the sick be adequately cared for, until they were fairly fitted for the competitive existence of civil life.

For this purpose, our medical services, and our vocational training schools must be maintained until the need for them is no more.

These, then, are some of the purposes for which the Victory Loan 1919 is being raised. Other purposes are told about in other announcements.

As you read them, the conviction will grow upon you of the absolute necessity for the

Victory Loan 1919

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in co-operation with the Minister of Finance

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
San Francisco, Oct. 16.—Edward Patrick Morris, the star Seattle hockey player, must serve his two years' sentence for draft evading. ERNEST BARRY WILL MEET ALFRED FELTON IN SCULLING MATCH

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

London, Oct. 16.—Ernest Barry who has held the world's championship for sculling ever since 1908 will defend his title against Alfred Felton of Australia. The race will take place on the Thames River on October 27. Barry gained the title by beating George Towns of New South Wales.

Australians are very confident that the title will go back to its old home under the Southern Cross.

MUCH CARGO TAKEN TO MINING CENTRE

Judging from appearances when the Prince John was loading cargo for Stewart at the dock yesterday, activities must be going to be just as strong as ever at that place and Hyder during the winter. The John was scheduled to leave at 3 o'clock but she did not get away till two or three hours later and all the time was spent taking on supplies as fast as the winchman could handle them. There were dozens of cases of eggs, bales of hay, mattresses, stoves and even barrels of beer.

FAIR TREATMENT DUE TO SOLDIERS

Canada Owes It to the Returned Man to Give Him a Helping Hand.

Canada's obligations to her fighting men are not to be taken lightly. The debt she owes each one of them is something that must be met in some form or other. That they can never be fully repaid for what they did is undoubtedly true.

"Paying wives is on a par with paying soldiers off" was the way one person expressed it. The service cannot be compensated for in dollars and cents.

These obligations are many. Bringing the men back to Canada is but one phase of the great question. They must then be changed from fighters to workers. The sick and wounded must be cared for and the hospitals maintained and equipped for so doing. The men who are discharged must receive their gratuity and many of them are taking advantage of the loans to buy and equip farms.

Money must be forthcoming to meet these obligations. The 1919 Victory Loan will be the medium through which the debt to the returned soldier will be paid. The people of Canada will be asked to help the government meet these obligations and their money will be held only for a time and then repaid, in the meantime drawing 5 1/2 per cent. interest.

The returned man did a lot for you. He counts on you to do this for him. Victory Loan, 1919.

SALTING DOG SALMON

The fishing boat Sea Boy came in from the fishing grounds in the vicinity of Chomly with a load of dog salmon, approximately 1,000, says the Alaska Times. Being that there is no market for the sale of dog salmon here, the Index Fish & Oyster Company are salting all of them, according to information furnished by Gene Thomas, master of the Sea Boy.
