Likewise, he insisted at all times he was motivated by patriotism, not chance of possible profit, in taking over the naval reserves. He asserted he had been led to believe a Pacific war was imminent and that it was necessary to concentrate oil in Honolulu for American vessels. Here was an opportunity, he said he had been told, for a man of wealth to perform an act which would immeasurably aid his government.

Interesting Historical Facts Related At British Israel Meeting

That the Gospel reached Great Britain within a generation of Christ's death was one of the historical facts brought out by W. H Wilson-Murray at the regular meeting of the British-Israel Association held last evening in the Toc H Rooms. Mr. Murray took for of the British Empire." He told of Caractacus, the British king, with his sons, Claudia and Linus, being taken captive to Rome where they Library. so impressed Claudius the Emperor that he dismissed them home to Britain. During their captivity. Caractacus and his sons had met Pudens and Aristobulus whom the Apostle Paul greeted more than once according to his epistles and from them received the Gospel. Following them came Joseph of Arimathea who took Christ's body from the Cross and this Joseph founded Glastonbury Abbey. After him came Aristobulus who settled at Dorchester in Dorset. Thus being among the first European nations to receive the Gospel, so have the British peoples been the first in spreading world-wide. The three characteristics of Israel in the latter days! as foretold would be their belief in the Holy Scripture, their Sabbath observance and their charity to other nations.

Mr. Murray briefly traced the migration of the tribes of Israel from their captivity on their way to the place prepared for them "where no enemy can touch them", coming to the Isles of the northwest from Palestine as Britons, then Angles, Saxons, Jutes, Danes Normans, Flemings and Huguenots.

There was a good attendance of members present who took part in the discussion following the address. P. H. Linzey, president of the Association, was in the chair.
