

LAUNCH UPSET OFF ROSE SPIT

Three Men in Peril of Their Lives. Saved by Hard Struggle. Islands Need Gasoline Carrying Freighter.

Rose Spit was the scene of a very narrow escape the other day when a gasoline boat with a crew of three men was overturned in a heavy sea there. All three men managed to save their lives by clinging to the up turned craft until she drifted ashore, but they lost a great deal of valuable gear, and the saving of the boat will cause considerable difficulty. The men were on the way to Rupert for a supply of gasoline. It is not possible to obtain gasoline by the G. T. P. Boat from Rupert as the Prince John's passenger certificate does not admit of the carrying of the inflammable spirit. A petition is being circulated in the hope that a permit may be secured for the Prince John to carry a small deck load of gasoline on her trips, as there are ten launches on the inlet, and the trip to Rupert is dangerous in small craft.

MASSET WENT LIBERAL

Conservative Forces Underwent Defeat in Their Island Strong hold.

Sixteen votes for Ross and eleven for Clements at Masset with one spoiled vote represents a real turning of the tide towards Liberalism on the Islands for at last Provincial election the poll went solid for the Conservative candidate. Local Liberals celebrated the occasion quietly in view of the general trend of the elections throughout the Dominion.

There was a good crowd in town for election day, but no incident of note. Voters scattered over the island with survey parties did not manage to make the polling place which was in James Martin's store, the proprietor being Deputy Returning Officer.

Popular G. T. P. Boats

As ever punctual, the G. T. P. steamer Prince George arrived this morning on time, with a fair crowd of first class passengers, and an exceptionally heavy load of freight largely supplies for Messrs. Foley, Welch & Stewart. The Prince John arrived today early from the islands, and reported an uneventful trip.

A Big Difference

Young Hopeful—Father, what is a traitor in politics?
Veteran Politician—A traitor is a man who leaves our party and goes over to the other one.
Young Hopeful—Well, then, what is a man who leaves his party and comes over to yours?
Veteran Politician—A convert, my son.—(Tit-Bits.)

Mail Steamers

Last night the "old reliable" Camosun arrived with passengers, freight, and mail and proceeded to Stewart. The George brought mail this morning also, and Vancouver election extras, not quite as live as Rupert's own newspapers by this time.

A large quantity of very fine specimens of shrimp caught in Prince Rupert waters, are being displayed in the window of Shrub-sall's market on Third avenue.

ALL BIBLE BELIEVERS

Undenominational Services to be Held in Three Rupert Churches.

The Rev. John Knox, B. C. Secretary of the Canadian Bible Society, arrived this morning on the Prince George. He will preach at the Baptist morning service in the McIntyre Hall, at the Presbyterian service in the Empress Theatre on Sunday night and at a joint meeting of all denominations at the Methodist Church on Monday night.

MASSET NEWS

Roadbuilders Busy

A large party of workmen are engaged in opening a twenty-mile road from the Wilson coal property to Queenstown on Masset Inlet, and down the Yakoun River. It is the intention to run a line of railway to tidewater for the shipment of the large body of coal on Graham Island.

Timber Supply

Mr. Tingley is arranging to import a portable mill, for the purpose of cutting timber for the settlers on Masset Inlet and the east coast of Graham Island.

Machinery Expected

The steamer Prince John is expected from Vancouver with machinery and lumber for the mining camps at the head of Masset Inlet.

Residential Improvement

Mine host Ives, of the St. Ives hotel, Masset, has purchased the residence formerly owned by C. J. Cook, and is busy improving the house and grounds.

Want New Wharf

The necessity for a wharf at Masset townsite has been apparent on the arrival of every steamer. The present structure is falling to pieces and the residents of New Masset are petitioning for the construction of a new wharf at the head of Main street.

New School Ready

A new schoolhouse has been erected on Collision avenue, Masset, and will be occupied when passed by the inspector. Miss Robinson of Vancouver, arrived in Masset recently to take charge of the school.

Cold Storage Coming

A representative of a large cold storage company has been inspecting the various locations on Naden Harbor, with a view to constructing buildings and commencing operations.

Masset Social Notes

Captain Geddes, who was recently married in Prince Rupert, will become a permanent resident of Masset Inlet.

Messrs. Carrs and Harrison visited the settlements on the east coast of Graham Island, in the launch Josephine.

Took Totem Pole

Dr. Newcombe made a trip to Skidegate and Masset and purchased a large number of curios for the Provincial Museum. A large totem pole was secured at the Clew Indian reserve.

Settlers for Masset

Several settlers arrived at Masset on the steamer Prince John and are engaged in looking for homes. Among them are four former residents, who looked over other sections of the province and are now willing to cast their lot with the pioneers of Queen Charlotte Islands.

Roomy Freighter

This morning the C. P. R. steamer Princess Epa arrived from the north ready for the south freight.
