ITEMS OF SPORT

Christy Matthewson is a rich man. He has been drawing a salary of about $10,000 a year for several years and has made some paying investments. "Big Six" intimates that he will quit the game this year if the Giants win the world's series.

President Taft officiated at the presentation of an automobile to Manager Jack Hendricks of the Denver baseball team. Denver is the winner of the 1911 pennant in the Western League. The victory of his team aroused great enthusiasm throughout Colorado. A public subscription was started to buy a Chalmers "30" touring car for Manager Hendricks.

There may be more than one change in Eastern League ownership before next season. A syndicate of Providence men went to buy the franchise in that city. It is now owned in Boston. Hugh Duffy is heavily interested in the club and may be the next manager. He is not particularly strong in Chicago. Jersey City may also be sold and Jack Ryan supplanted as manager.

Ty Cobb played his last game of the season at Cleveland, O., on October 4th, having been excused from the St. Louis trip by Manager Jennings. Cobb has captured the American league records for base stealing and run getting, having 85 stolen bases and 149 runs to his credit this season. He leads the league in batting with .417 and his 247 hits this season beats the major league record held since 1897 by Willie Keeler with 243 hits.

John Pohlabs, the German, and Raymond Cazeaux, the French grappler, gave one of the wildest exhibitions of free-fighting that has ever been pulled off at Sohmer Park under the name of Graeco-Roman wrestling, when they came together on the mat the other night at Montreal. Pohlabs was the man who butted into the ring last Wednesday and sought to wrestle Cazeaux, although the latter was busy trying to throw Shad Link. He was evidently still keen for the Frenchman's scalp, and from the start the match was lively.

Graeco-Roman tactics were soon discarded despite the pleadings of Referee Birks, and the men went at each other all styles. About fifteen minutes after the start Cazeaux pulled off some particularly vicious scragging and Pohlabs rushed to the corner, seized his chair and swung at his opponent with it. The Frenchman dodged and snatched the chair, hurling it at the German, who likewise evaded it.

The chair left the ring and landed amidst the audience, and the men went to it with fists. Referee Birks and some spectators finally separated them, and the game went on. The tactics were scarcely less rough, and at the end of 26 minutes the referee awarded each man a fall for fouling and wanted to close the match. The crowd would not hear of it, and after ten minutes the men recommenced viciously. Finally Cazeaux got the German where he wanted him and smashed his head down with such force that he was temporarily stunned. Cazeaux then put Pohlabs's shoulders to the mat and was awarded the winning fall.

Hits Nail on Head

It will be found almost impossible to drive thin steel nails into hard wood, for the moment you hit them hard enough to puncture the wood they bend over on themselves. Many people employ the use of a small gimlet to bore the hole destined to hold the nail, and few people know that if yellow soap is rubbed on the nail it can be driven in the hardest wood with ease.

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

FORWARD MOVEMENT

Moslem Women Seek Emancipation Now

Now it is the Moslem women of Egypt who are taking part in the women's movement, having asked of the Moslem Congress the right to attend prayers and sermons in the mosques, a privilege already granted to the women of Constantinople. They also ask that the primary education of young women be made obligatory; that young girls be admitted to schools of medicine; that means be used to prevent polygamy and the abuse of divorce, and to teach Mohammedan girls sewing, house-keeping, and hygiene.

FASHIONS IN FURS

Coming Styles for the Cold Weather in Glossy Garments for Lovely Woman.

Ermine is to be a most fashionable fur this winter, and it is a very lovely though perishable fur, therefore, it behoves madame to have more than one set of furs, so that the ermine can be used only when en grande tenue.

A soft black satin, the long-skirted coat of which had a deep perline of ermine draped in the soft folds now so fashionable, was most effective. Skunk and bear will be much worn, fashioned into straight stoles and big pillow-shaped mufflers. Hats are made of cream plush which has almost the effect of fur, and trimmed very simply with but a couple of large velvet bows in the shade of the gown.

Fur hats will be worn later on, though in our warm Canadian houses they are uncomfortable often at a reception or calling, but gill of milk. When it thickens add the other ingredients and mix well. Take the pan from the fire, stir in a beaten egg and a teaspoonful of lemon juice and mix all thoroughly. Turn out, and when cold form into cutlets; brush them over with beaten egg, cover with bread crumbs, and fry in a very hot fat. Serve with bread sauce or tomato sauce.

ARTIST IN HATS

Woeful Lot of World Famed Man-milliner. Society Idol

It is said on authority that Herman P. Tappe, referred to as America's "one artist milliner," has gone into voluntary bankruptcy, the result of his too trusting nature. Chivalry and millinery evidently are not incompatible for so the story goes, rather than dun the fashionable who patronized him, he neglected to pay his bills, he has allowed his brilliant career to end in the bankruptcy court.

It is said that in the list are numbered such society and theatrical lights as Mrs. Waldorf Astor, Mrs. Oliver Iselin, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson and others; among actresses Mrs. Patrick Campbell, Mrs. Leslie Carter, Billie Burke and Elsie De Wolf. The list is much longer, but this will do. Assuming the statement that his bankruptcy is owing to what those fashionable and assumedly really wealthy women owed him, it is a pretty tough not unusual commentary on the moral attitude of his debtors. It appears by the newspaper report that Mr. Tappe is the son of an Ohio college professor, and studied for the priesthood in a Catholic college in Cincinnati, but his interest in millinery was so great that he no one can deny their becomingness. Lancer plumes and big motifs of handsome passementerie are suitable additions to these hats. The large black velvet is always charming in its soft outline next to hair and face; the brim lined with white or the shade of the dress is a charming finish to a pretty costume.

Mole-color faced with pale blue; chestnut brown with cerise; grey with richest red; dark blue and pale green, black and white, are all delightful combinations.

Mock Chicken Cutlets

This is one of the vegetarian recipes which most people seem to like so well.

Grate, by passing through fine meat chopper one-quarter pound of shelled walnuts or Brazil nuts, and add to them two teaspoonfuls of bread crumbs, one-half ounce of butter, a teaspoonful of onion juice, a little ground mace and a seasoning of salt and pepper; a little celery salt may also be added.

Melt one-half ounce of butter in a stew-pan, mix in a teaspoonful of flour and add by degrees one
