"THE FIRST GREAT BETRAYAL"

It is not to be expected that any political leader selecting a Cabinet can please all his followers. But Mr. Borden in his efforts to secure a ministry of all the talents seems to have been more than ordinarily unfortunate. Tory Toronto, the headquarters of Conservatism in Canada, seems to be very much torn over his Cabinet selections. The selection of Mr. W. T. White—probably the ablest and strongest of all the new ministers, is being made the subject of bitter protests.

The Toronto Telegram, whose ultra violent Conservatism is almost a byword has come out in open attack and is asking the Ontario Conservatives to defeat Hon. W. T. White and Hon. Frank Cochrane at the forthcoming by-elections. The introduction of the French Nationalist and clerical representatives into the Cabinet is the ground of the Telegram's bitterest ire. In an editorial entitled "The First Great Betrayal" it says:

"If Hon. R. L. Borden and the Borden Government have any real friends in Ontario, these friends will set to work and defeat Hon. Frank Cochrane and Hon. W. T. White in any constituency to which they may appeal in this Province.

"The question for Ontario Conservatives to decide is whether they will strangle the advisers who have subordinated the R. L. Borden Premiership to clericalism and corporatism on the occasion of the first betrayal of the people.

"Or will the true friends of the Borden Premiership hesitate to strangle the worst enemies of that Premiership and give these enemies time to strangle the whole Conservative party and deprive Canada of the fruits of as noble a victory as a free people ever won?

"The defeat of Hon. Frank Cochrane and Hon. W. T. White in Ontario constituencies would bring Hon. R. L. Borden face to face with the quality of the folly which he has accepted as wisdom, and teach Mr. Borden that the voice of Ontario does not necessarily speak in the accents of Sir William Mackenzie and J. W. Flavell & Company."

Of course the Telegram's attitude is unreasonable. The Telegram did not object to Mr. Borden obtaining the assistance of clerical and corporation allies in its hydra-headed campaign. Why should it object to either the clerical party or the corporations securing representation now victory is obtained?

It is an interesting speculation as to how the Telegram—which is the unofficial mouthpiece for the Orangemen of Ontario—will take the proposed elevation of Dr. Sproule to the Speakership. Will it take it with praise and thanks as a recognition of the Orange party, or will it condemn it with bitterness as a Machiavellian scheme to rob the Orange party of its ablest mouthpiece in the Commons, in preparation for the time when the Manitoba school question will be re-opened in the House by the clericals.

The Telegram's attitude will give the cue to Ontario Orangemen. It is at a moment like this that the opinion of a newspaper, giving the direction to public opinion, means much to a political party.

PASSING COMMENT

The iniquitous state of law administration in the Chilcotin country is a direct result of putting the Attorney General's department and the license administration into politics. Even if we cannot attain high political ideals the administration of justice should at least be kept out of the swirl-tub of party spoils.

Mr. George H. Perley, the late chief Conservative Whip and now a member of Mr. Borden's Cabinet, is the first native born American to hold Cabinet rank in the Dominion Government. He was born in New Hampshire in 1857.

Mr. W. J. Bryan, the champion "also ran" of the United States politics, in a recent religious address spoke strongly against gambling: "During the three campaigns when I ran for the presidency I always advised my friends not to bet.

"And," he added, amid a shout of laughter from the audience, "they always appreciated the advice after the election."

The News regrets it did not print this story early in September.

Careful examination of the performances of major league pitchers for the last ten years is not needed to show that Christopher Mathewson is the greatest pitcher of the day.

President Bob Brown, of the Vancouver Baseball Club, will leave shortly for San Antonio, where he will attend the annual meeting of the National Association of Minor Leagues.

Chicago won the toss from Detroit in the choice for the scene of the opening game of the 1908 world's series and won the championship; Pittsburgh won the toss from Detroit in 1909 and likewise the series. Philadelphia outlucked Chicago in the same department in 1910 and you know who holds the title at the present time; New York won the toss this year.

One of the greatest upsets of the season among two-year-olds occurred at Newmarket when Mr. J. B. Joel's 7 to 1 shot, the Absurdity colt, won the Middlepark Plate, worth $5000, at six furlongs. The winner of this race often supplies the favorite in winter betting for the Derby.

The same owner's White Star, full brother to this year's Derby winner, heavily backed at 6 to 4, could do no better than third, the Joel pair being split by the American bred colt, Sweeper II., owned by H. B. Duryea, and which started second favorite at 2 to 1. The winner is by Sundridge—Absurdity, and though he has won some good races had been tried out inferior to White Star, his brother. He is trained by Morton. The result was far from popular.

Because the eighteenth annual Dunlop race for bicyclists has been transferred from the road to the track this year it has been decided to divide the event into two as follows: The shield, which formerly went to the team finishing first in the road race will be put up as a prize for a team of 15 miles, four men to a team. There will be individual prizes for the first five men finishing as well as medals for the winning team. The Dunlop trophy will be contested for as follows: A 10-mile repechage will be put on with the usual handicap heats. The winners of these heats will go into the final against the scratch men and the winner of the event will take the trophy for one year. There will be the usual individual prizes.

Another Great Story

THE DAILY NEWS READERS HAVE ANOTHER TREAT IN STORE FOR THEM

The News has received so many letters of appreciation from its readers for its enterprise and judgment in securing the serial rights of Captain Clive Wolley's great story, "The Tenderfoot's Wooing," that it has gone still further.

The News has secured the serial rights for Louis Tracy's Great New Story

"The Pillar of Light"

and will start the story very shortly

Louis Tracy is the greatest writer of fascinating adventure stories in England.—His plots are vigorous.—His characters are lifelike. There is not a dull paragraph. His stories are models of good English too. . . .

What The Pillar of Light Is

The "Pillar of Light" is a sea story of love and adventure. As you may guess the "Pillar of Light" is a lighthouse. The story concerns the romance of Stephen Brand the lighthouse keeper and man of mystery. It is a story of heroic deeds in many lands. It will hold you to the very last word and delight you all the time. In the end you will see the greater meaning of the title "The Pillar of Light. : : :
