FIRST: "CATCH YOUR PRINTER"

***** DIRECTIONS FOR COOKING A HARE: *****

FIRST:—"CATCH YOUR HARE"

To produce good printing you must "first catch your good printer. . . You can't get good printing from a poor printer, even if he work with never so good an equipment. If he lacks the "knack," the trained taste, the single-minded fondness for his work which real printers have, he will do poor printing for you. If he has all of these, and in addition to them adequate modern equipment, your printing will have distinction, salesmanship, the lure of type-beauty.

As this office produces good printing you may infer the presence of a good printer—who is "catchable."

Salt Lake City, Oct. 26.—Mrs. Dora Toppan, known as "Belle London," part owner and manager of the "Stockade," Salt Lake City's restricted district, which was recently abolished by the police, was sentenced today to eighteen years in the penitentiary under the new state vice law. Mrs. Toppan was convicted of enticing Doney Gray, a young Salt Lake City girl to the "Stockade." Mrs. Toppan's attorneys will carry the case to the Supreme Court.

KING AND KOH-I-NOORNew Crown for Durbar is Ordered and Will Cost Fabulous Sum.

It is understood on high authority that orders have been given for the preparation of a special crown for the king when he attends the Delhi durbar, and that the value is estimated to be about $325,000. The design was prepared by the leading firm of London jewelers, who at present have the execution of the order in hand.

Whether the king will decide to wear the Koh-i-Noor in his crown at Delhi remains to be seen.

All India knows the legend, "He who holds the Koh-i-Noor holds India." Since the annexation of the Punjab the Koh-i-Noor has been one of the chief jewels of the English crown, but Queen Victoria never visited India, and King Edward's coronation durbar was held by Lord Curzon. India has thus never yet beheld the Koh-i-Noor on the head of an English emperor.

At the coronation the great Indian diamond was the chief jewel in the crown of the queen, the great Star of Africa being the central ornament of the king's crown. It has been reported that the queen would also wear the Koh-i-Noor at the durbar, but nothing definite is known on this point.
