OMINECA ELECTION

Omineca is still Liberal in spite of the activity of the C. C. F. and the strength of their candidate in the constituency. Sid Godwin made a splendid run and was particularly fortunate in his former home town of Burns Lake where he lived for many years.

We congratulate Mark Connelly on his splendid win. He should make an excellent member. He has a big stake in the country, is a resident and will, doubtless, serve the people well. The fact that he ships logs through Prince Rupert gives people at the coast an added interest in him.

Dr. Thompson led a forlorn cause. Conservatism seems to be a thing of the past in British Columbia but no one can say when it may come back.

It is noticeable that Connelly almost had a majority over all. His vote up to this morning was 806 while the combined vote of the other two was only 825. That is a pretty good record for a man who is new to politics.

POLITICAL BIAS

The announcement of the result in Omineca draws attention to how people's judgment is biased by their political leanings. A prominent member of the C. C. F. who often drops into the office gave the opinion a few days ago that the C. C. F. candidate would win, whereas the opinion expressed in the News office was that the Liberal would win. Neither knew anything about the present conditions because the floods had cut off all communication yet each persuaded himself that his own side was sure to win. Possibly the reasoning of one was that the C. C. F. was a cause that was growing in Victoria and, therefore, its growth would be reflected in Omineca. The Liberal reasoning may have been that Liberalism had a strong hold in Omineca and there was nothing to indicate any change there.

LIBERALISM HOLDING WELL

Considering the prestige of the former Liberal candidate in Omineca and of the fact that Godwin was a much stronger candidate for the C. C. F. than Windle was at the general election, the Liberals made an excellent showing in yesterday's election. All returns are not yet in, but comparison with the last vote shows that Connelly made almost as good a showing as Manson. Mr. Manson took 789 against 733 for all other parties as shown in the returns made three days after the 1933 election. On this occasion Connelly took 806 as against 825 for the other parties combined. By the time the full count is made it will be shown that the vote was much larger on this occasion and that very keen interest must have been taken in the outcome. Evidently Pattullo is holding his own well so far.

NAVY WINS IN SOCCER

Scored in Last Minute of Play To Defeat Legion Last Night

Last night's Dominion Day Cup football game between the Canadian Legion and the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve resulted in a win for the Navy by one goal to nil. The single goal was scored in the last minute of play. While the two teams had already assured themselves of places in the final on Dominion Day, the game was keenly contested and provided a good turnout of spectators with an evening's real enjoyment.

Stiles saved Iverson's header following Palmer's corner kick and Pierce fielded Crompt's shot safely. Palmer lost a good opening. Pierce caught Dickens' high drive well but was lucky when there was no Navy forward to make the most of his poor judgment a moment later. A penalty awarded against Bremner was taken by Christison but Stiles turned the shot against the bar and it rebounded into play and was finally cleared. Holkestad crossed two well placed centres.

Dickens made a clever run but Pierce cleared his shot. Legion pressed and Pierce saved from Crompt and Dickens. A second penalty taken by Christison was splendidly saved by Stiles again. McMeekin centred well and Christison tried to work through but was stopped. Armstrong missed a good opening from Iverson's pass. Cameron tested Pierce. Navy now pressed steadily but good play and a measure of luck kept them out. Christison at last scored with a minute to go.

Teams:
R.C.N.V.R.—Pierce, Eby, Davies, Veitch, Ronalds, Bryant, Palmer, Armstrong, Christison, Iverson, McMeekin.

Canadian Legion—Stiles, Blake, Bremner, Greer, Dickens, Franks, O'Neill, Cameron, Crompt, Bussanich, Holkestad.

Referee—S. Woodside; linesmen, J. N. Kelly and J. Andrews.

Interesting Game

The game was always interesting. R.C.N.V.R. had two reliable backs in Davies and Eby; Ronalds was the pick of the halfback line and Christison, Iverson and McMeekin of the forwards. The forwards, however, lack finish and constructive play. They should do better with the ability that is there. Pierce was very good in goal but was lucky twice.

For the Legion Stiles was very confident and safe. To save two penalty kicks in a game must be nearly a record. Blake was a good back, Murray being missed. Dickens played a hard game but could do with less talking. Crompt, Cameron and Holkestad were the most dangerous forwards. O'Neill plays very hard but must learn to keep his position and part sooner with the ball. Bussanich was effective.

Returning to Germany Aboard Airship Hindenburg—Cleveland Bids For Title Bout

NEW YORK, June 23.—Cleveland interests yesterday bid $1,250,000 for a world's heavyweight championship bout between Max Schmeling, former champion and conqueror of Joe Louis, and Jimmy Braddock, the present titleholder.

Schmeling left last night on board the dirigible Hindenburg on his return to Germany, leaving all business matters to his manager, Joe Jacobs.

"I am not interested so much in money as in the championship," Schmeling told interviewing newspapermen before his departure.

Defeat Phillies to Start Building Up Lead Again Over Chicago Cubs Who Lost to Boston

NEW YORK, June 23.—By defeating the Phillies yesterday, St. Louis Cardinals increased their margin of leadership in the National League to one and a half games over the Chicago Cubs who were dropping a 5 to 1 decision to the Bees at Boston.

In the American League the New York Yankees increased their lead to five and a half games by defeating the White Sox at Chicago while the second place Boston Red Sox were dropping a close decision to the Tigers at Detroit. The Tigers are now in a tie for third place with the Cleveland Indians who lost to the Philadelphia Athletics at home. The idle Washington Senators are leading the second division with the Chicago White Sox in sixth place.

Yesterday's Big League scores:

David Bell of Vancouver Coming Here to Direct Playground Activities This Summer

The Prince Rupert Gyro Club has been advised by Ian Eisenhardt, director of physical and recreational education for the Department of Education, of the appointment of David Bell of Vancouver as playground supervisor in Prince Rupert. Mr. Bell will be here very shortly to assume his duties.

Twenty-two years of age and a Canadian, Mr. Bell has had considerable experience already in this sort of activity, having been director in charge of one of Vancouver playgrounds. His special interests include baseball, basketball, volleyball, gymnasium hockey, softball, first aid and life saving. Mr. Bell, who will continue into the fall and winter as director of the physical education and recreational centre here next season, will have as his assistant Laughlin Gillies, who was assistant at the recreational centre here last winter. There may also be a lady assistant although this has not yet been definitely arranged.

The Gyro Club is financing the institution of personal supervision of playground activities in Prince Rupert this summer.
