

FREE TRIP ROUND THE WORLD

We have just arranged with one of our clients to place forty-two lots on the market under exceptional advantages to the purchasers. The lots are some of the best in Sections 7 and 8. The prices are as low as any on the market, and the terms so easy—monthly—that anyone can buy. Along with this exceptional offer, each lot admits the purchaser to a drawing for a FREE TRIP ROUND THE WORLD. If you hold the lucky ticket the trip is yours; or you can surrender it for a cash consideration. The chances are good—one in forty-two. Come in and investigate.

STYLES FOR CHILDREN

It is More Difficult to Get Them Right Than for Grown-Ups.

In the thoughts of dress and styles we must not forget the children, and never were hats for the little ones more charming than this year. For the most part they are close fitting, quaint little bonnet shapes of fur are being shown, and Tam O'Shanter. The crown of one seen in Victoria last week was of pearl gray beaver, while the head band was corded with lace frills and a rosette of lace. Another was a turban of white fox with a frill of fur on one side. This is worn with a neck piece of the same fur finished with frills of fur at the bottom of the neck piece. And what would be even more sweet and pretty for the kiddie would be a coat and muff to match. What little pink-cheeked tot would not look altogether kissable in such a costume?

SPORT!

A storm of protest has been aroused in Masonic circles by the initiation of Jack Johnson into the Forfarshire and Kin-cardinshire lodge of Free Masons.

Welch will referee the Wol-gast-Welsh fight at Los Angeles on November 30 for the lightweight championship of the world.

Courtdareli, the giant Turk, tooled as a coming world beater, who has arrived from his native land with an offer to throw any man in the world, failed to make good at his first appearance in Montreal last week. He was billed to throw Raymond Caseaux four times within an hour, but failed to take a single fall from the Frenchman. The Turk weighed in at 300 pounds, having nearly 75 pounds the advantage of the Frenchman, but though he was on top most of the time, he could not pin the lighter man's shoulders to the mat. Courtdareli seemed to be in poor condition, and was much distressed toward the end. The men wrestled at Graeco-Roman, which the Turk's manager claimed was a handicap, as his man is a catch-as-catch-can artist.

Tommy Dunderdale, Winnipeg's star hockeyist, may follow the crowd to the coast and line up with one of the Patrick teams in Vancouver or Victoria. Tommy has received a long letter from Frank Patrick offering him $1,000 for the season, which is indeed a very flattering offer. However, Tommy has decided to give the Quebec team first chance and if the will come through with the same salary he will hike for the ancient capital.

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—Jack Williams, the peerless center half of the Ottawa football club, has announced that he would leave about January 1 for Regina, where he has accepted a position in the real estate business with Morgan O'Brien. It is also said that Charlie Disney and Stuart Robertson of the Ottawas will accompany him, though they have not yet closed.
