A CALL TO FRANK MOBLEY.

After being recognised as the stronghold of Alderman Newton's support, the vote of the Property Holders' Association, who last night at the first mention of Mr. Frank Mobley's name regis- Phone 125 tered a tie vote, is another evidence that there is a widespread demand that he stand for nomination as Mayor. Indeed, but for the unusual act of the chairman in casting his vote with the general ballot instead of holding it to decide a tie, the association would have given a majority for Mr. Mobley.

An unusual and significant feature of the meeting was the Prince Rupert Lodge, I.O.O.F. and the patrons of that hostelry position taken by Alderman Morrissey, who spoke on Mr. Mobley's behalf. Alderman Newton has so frequently been found on the same side as Alderman Morrissey when questions came up for reconsideration that the two have been often looked on as especially partial to one another. Alderman Morrissey, indeed, paid tribute over and over again last night to his confidence in Alderman Newton as a man and as a citizen. "But," he urged, "I do not look on him as the best man for Mayor." With the exceptional opportunity that Alderman Morrissey has had for sizing up his colleague's abilities and shortcomings his judgment has more than ordinary weight.

With Alderman Newton's good intentions few will demur. His alacrity in changing over when he found that he was on the unpopular side of a question is an evidence of his good intention. But good intentions do not correct errors and the public at large find it impossible to forget that it was Alderman Newton who was responsible for driving the first Council out of public life, and for boosting himself and Mayor Manson and his present colleagues onto the city.

At that time Frank Mobley announced that he would prefer to go down to defeat than bind himself to any particular section of the public. The wisdom of that course has been amply justified. Now that we have spent a year in warring and strife we cannot do better than to go back to where we were a year ago and take up the reins of progressive government again, with Frank Mobley at the head.

The vote at the Property Holders' Association last night is an evidence that even in the ranks of Alderman Newton's recognised supporters there is a demand that Mr. Mobley be called to be next Mayor of Prince Rupert.
