Delegations Off To Kitimaat Meet

Alfred Adams, President of Native Brotherhood, Here After Kitkatla Visit

Alfred Adams, of Massett, president of the Native Brotherhood of British Columbia, is back in the city after a visit to the Kitkatla branch prior to the forthcoming Brotherhood convention to be held at Kitimaat. Mr. Adams will be here until Saturday morning when, with the delegations from Massett, Port Simpson and Kitkatla, he will proceed down the coast for the convention. The delegates will spend next Sunday at Hartley Bay, proceeding from there on Monday to Kitimaat where the convention is to open on Tuesday next. Delegates from Bella Bella and other villages down the coast will travel to Hartley Bay aboard the steamer Cardena at the end of this week, joining the other delegates there and all going along to Kitimaat together.

Provincial Constable L. E. Requa of Stewart was here aboard the Prince George yesterday returning north after a week's trip to Vancouver.

Orange Ladies' Dance Enjoyed

While the crowd was not as large as might have been expected, the dance held last night by the Ladies' Orange Benevolent Association in the Oddfellows' Hall was a very enjoyable affair. Old time dancing was featured with music by John Bremner's Orchestra. The affair was in progress from 10 p.m. until 1:30 a.m. and James Haddon was master of ceremonies. At midnight delicious refreshments were served.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. Hugh Killin, Mrs. M. M. Lamb, Mrs. R. T. Anderson, Mrs. S. V. Cox, Mrs. William Richards and Mrs. Gus Krause.

POLITE THIEVES

LITTLE CHICAGO, Alta. Dec. 1.—(CP)—When Hugh Wolsey discovered his car stolen he found a note pinned on his front door reading: "You will find your car one mile east of the British American Oil plant." Upon searching he found his auto at the place mentioned, although badly damaged.

Gamma Still Is Undefeated

Won 40 to 33 Over Beta in Senior Game Yesterday

In the High School Senior basketball game in the Armory yesterday afternoon, Gamma continued to be undefeated by winning over Beta 40 to 33. The Junior game between Beta and Gamma resulted in a tie 8 to 8.

In the opening ten minutes of the senior game, Gamma had the ball all the time and Beta never had a shot at Gamma's basket. Beta got going towards the end with Kihara and Eby working well. The first half ended with Gamma leading 23 to 13.

Best for Gamma in this half were Christian and Lee; for Beta, Kihara and Eby. In the second half the play was more even with the addition of Holkestad to the Beta's team. This half was very fast and hard checking with Beta scoring three more points than Gamma. Best for Gamma were Smith and MacDonald and for Beta were Holkestad and Kihara.

Individual scoring was: Gamma—Christian (captain) 4; Knutson 8; MacDonald 6; Brown 2; Barber (manager); Lee 6; Smith 8; Morin; Storrie 6.

Beta—Holkestad (captain) 15; Eby (manager) 4; Kihara 10; Hopkins 4; Johnson.

Junior Game

The Junior game between Gamma and Beta ended with a tie score of eight all. For Gamma Astoria and Cameron were good but could not sink their shots. In the second half Hirano put up a good showing. Half time score was 8 to 3 in Gamma's favor. For Beta O'Neil and Simundson had combination although shooting was poor except for a beautiful shot by Simundson in the second half. Both teams checked well with Selvig starring for Beta and Gomez for Gamma.

SPORT CHAT

The Scotland-England football game at Hampden Park April 15 will be an all-ticket affair. Applications for tickets are pouring into officials now.

Jean Borotra, famous French tennis star, says his secret of youth is "be a Basque." He is in his early 40's and still can give youngsters a stiff battle on the courts.

The Detroit Tigers were the only major league baseball team to play out their 154-game schedule in 1938. The Tigers also played a tie with St. Louis Browns so in reality they appeared 155 times.

William Raeside, trainer of one of Uruguay's leading soccer teams for the past 10 months, is returning to take a post as scout for Arsenal in Scotland.

Gamma. Individual scoring was as follows:

Gamma—Astoria 4, Cameron 2, Gomez 1, J. Davis 1, Santerbane, Kihara.

Beta—Simundson 4, O'Neil 4, Holkestad, Bird, Perkins, Selvig, Baker.

Want To Train One Year Ahead

Entries For 1940 Olympics Wish To Get Used To Climate in 1939

HELSINKI, Finland, Dec. 1.—(CP-Reuters)—To get themselves accustomed to local climate conditions, the stadium track and environment for the 1940 Olympic Games, athletes of many European nations are eager to compete in Helsinki next summer.

There has been such a demand that the Finnish athletic authorities are unable to accommodate everyone. Italy was anxious to send a representative team next year but, owing to previous arrangements, their request had to be refused.

Arrangements have been made for a German team to compete against Finland at Helsinki Stadium.

ENGLAND VS. ITALY

MILAN, Italy, December 1. (CP)—Arrangements are being made for an international soccer match between England and Italy. In the last meeting at London in 1931 England triumphed 3-2.

TRIBUTE TO YARDON

LONDON, Dec. 1.—(CP)—A tablet to the memory of Harry Yardon has been unveiled in the South Heats Golf Club at Tottenham where the famous British golfer was professional for many years.

MUST WEAR SINGLET

MELBOURNE, Australia, Dec. 1.—(CP)—The Victorian Rowing Association disapproves of oarsmen affiliated with the association rowing on the Upper or Lower Yarra River without singlets.

13 CHANGES LUCKY

OXFORD, England, Dec. 1.—(CP)—They're not superstitious here. Making 13 changes in the team beaten the previous Saturday, Oxford University defeated Edinburgh Academicals 19-10 at rugby.
