WORKMEN SAY THEY WILL STARVE IF NOT GIVEN MORE MONEY

Twenty Per Cent Increase Demanded in Winnipeg by the Various Trades; Bricklayers Ask 96c an Hour.

Winnipeg, Jan. 29.—Twenty per cent. increase in wages for union labor will be demanded by virtually every union in Winnipeg in the next two months, heads of local unions declare. "It is a case of increasing our wages, reducing the cost of living, or starving," Robert Sutherland, the business agent of the Carpenters' union, expressed it.

Representatives of all the building trades unions will meet members of the Builders' Exchange some time this week. Arrangements for the meeting were being made today by John Hooper, secretary of the exchange.

The workmen will make demands which are expected to amount to a straight 20 per cent. increase. This means that bricklayers who now get 80 cents an hour, will ask 96 cents.

COW AND BUOY

Curious Story of Way in Which Animal Was Deceived by Marine Guide.

To Cape Beale Lighthouse up the coast there was taken once a new lightkeeper, and with him went a cow, says the Daily Colonist. And it so happened that a short distance from the light there was a whistling buoy floating upon the water. This aid to navigation is such that air is compressed by the action of the waves and a whistle is thus actuated. The noise of the ingoing air and then the whistle is like a huge and gruesome groan, the note of the whistle being like that of a foghorn.

The lightkeeper and his cow landed at Cape Beale, and the first night the cow was lonely. Then the whistling buoy sent out its message of gloomy foreboding and the animal heard it as a friend speaking to her in the darkness. It answered with its best voice.

Back and forth across the water all that night and the next went the friendly interchanges of the buoy and cow, and the lightkeeper lay awake, perforce, and listened. He no doubt talked to himself there in the darkness, for he missed his sleep.

Jack Venables, of the G. W. Nickerson Co., arrived this morning from Vancouver. He is here on a business visit.

BRITAIN HAS MORE SHIPS AVAILABLE THAN EXPORT GOODS

President of British Board of Trade Speaks of Commerce and Trade Conditions.

London, Jan. 25. — (Reuter's). — Sir Albert Stanley, President of the Board of Trade, addressing the Huddersfield Chamber of Commerce last evening, said he would be much happier if he could see stronger indications of a restoration and development of trade in Great Britain. There was plenty of trade obtainable in the world. It was the deliberate policy of the Government that restrictions and control would be removed as rapidly as possible, but the restrictions upon exports must be maintained in respect to things vital to the interests of the Allied nations. The blockade also must be maintained until peace was secured.

Sir Albert said that there was more shipping available than cargoes and it was expected that this summer the world tonnage afloat would be equal to the pre-war tonnage. A very big slump in shipping rates might be anticipated.

He thought it was a fair suggestion that the Government should restrict imports until the manufactures were established once more on a peace footing. A ministry would shortly be established and experienced men already had been invited to join the board.

The Minister concluded by saying that strikes were the most difficult problem which must be faced and solved.

The drawing conducted by the Trades and Labor Council in aid of their library took place last night, the first prize being won by R. T. J. Rose with ticket 619; second, J. A. Christenson with 942; third, E. Davidson, ticket 492. The prizes were, a gramophone, oil painting, and five dollar gold piece respectively.
