PLENTY OF LABOR AT THE ANYOX MINE

* Supt. Campbell Says That Many Loggers and Others Are Coming In From Woods and Supplying Demand.

E. E. Campbell, superintendent of the mine at Anyox, and O. B. Smith, general superintendent of the Granby mining operations, arrived here yesterday from Ketchikan and expect to remain until tomorrow night when they will return to Anyox.

Speaking of conditions at Anyox, Mr. Campbell said that they, like all other communities, were hard hit by the influenza, but conditions were again back to normal. Work was now going on much as usual, except that labor conditions had changed. Loggers and others were flocking in from the woods and they now had all the labor they wanted.

Asked as to the prospect of the Ecstall River property being opened up Mr. Campbell said he knew nothing about it except that they had been boring there all summer and that the work had shut down for the winter. He supposed the work would proceed in the spring.

Mr. Campbell spoke of the splendid work that the people of Anyox had done for the Victory Loan. Only a small part of the large sum had been subscribed by the company, the people themselves taking the bonds freely and without the holding of any public meetings.

PRINCE JOHN ARRIVES FROM MORESBY ISLAND

Bringing word that the mills at Moresby Island and most of the logging camps had shut down and with a full passenger list of loggers and others, the Prince John arrived in port yesterday morning early. She also brought a hold full of canned salmon, there being 6,000 cases from Skidegate and 4,000 cases from Aliford Bay. After discharging them and loading up again the steamer left early this morning for Masset Inlet points.

Among the passengers arriving yesterday was Mr. Loller from Alii Inlet, W. Rennie from Lockport, J. M. O'Brien from Thurston Harbor and Mr. McLennan of Skidegate.

Among the logging camps that seemed to be still operating were Kelly's camp and the North Pacific Logging Co.
