ATTEMPT AT ARSON IN BIG STORE AT BURNS LAKE TOWN

What has all the earmarks of being a deliberate attempt at arson was discovered at Burns Lake last Thursday morning. Entrance was made to the big store owned by George McKenzie and a pile of old paper and boxes was ignited near several cases of gasoline. Owing to the green timber the fire did not, however, progress. Papers were found bearing handwriting which are being used as clues.

RED SOX DANCE WAS SUCCESSFUL

About 200 Friends of Boys Turned
Out to Help Team and Enjoy Themselves.

The dance in benefit of the Red Sox baseball team in St. Andrew's hall last night was in every way a success. About 200 persons were present and the affair was thoroughly enjoyed. The baseball boys proved themselves excellent hosts and everything went off without a hitch. Gray's orchestra provided the music and Miss Mabel Adams played very acceptable extras. At midnight dainty refreshments were served with Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Finlayson in charge. It was well on in the morning before the dancers departed.

The committee in charge of the arrangements and floor consisted of R. Davidson, Louis Astoria, William Marr, Sydney Butters and Don Graham. Jack Stewart, team manager, was also largely responsible for the success of the affair. Eddie Craggs was floor manager and kept things well in hand. Don Graham and Willie Martin were on the door.
