Harry Hanson's Patent

Patent Office, Ottawa, January 27, 1920.

Sir,—I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 17th inst. on the subject of Canadian patent No. 162632, granted to you on the 18th May, 1915, for a "Water Heater" and in reply to inform you that this patent was not made subject to the conditions of Section 44 of the Patent Act, (compulsory licence system) and is governed by Section 38 of the said Act, an extract from which I beg to enclose herewith.

I am also to inform you that the fee for the second six years term has not yet been paid, but it does not come due until the 18th May, 1921. The required amount is $20.00 and a covering letter referring to the patent by date and number, and stating the purpose for which the remittance is made is all that will be necessary.

I have the honour to be,

Your obedient servant,
(Signed) W. J. LYNCH,
Chief of the Patent Office.

Harry Hanson, Esq.,
139 Second Avenue,
Prince Rupert, B. C.

With regard to the above letter, I wish to say that as I have complied with section and paragraph 38 of the Patent Act, and therefore do not come under Section 44 of the said Act, and as I am equipped and willing to install, make and sell said "Water Heater" to any and everybody, I therefore according to law can, and hereby do withdraw the privileges of others making these water heaters.

I am willing to negotiate for an agency to make my water heater, with anyone willing to pay the royalty of $2.00 on each one installed on the distinct understanding that a year's guarantee goes with it.

Having nothing to say, as usual, about fight matters, Tex Rickard, rumored dark horse in the race after the Dempsey-Carpentier fight, is back in New York after a western trip and a jaunt to the Pacific coast. "Yes, I did see Kearns and Dempsey, but it was a social call I made. My trip to California was a pleasure trip to the west," he said. Gossip in New York has it that Rickard has the fight clinched but is withholding announcement until the charges against Dempsey have been heard.

The flu has just about ceased to be a topic of interest, having apparently abated after having done its worst, but, with its passing, another, though less serious, epidemic has started to take hold on a very large percentage of the local population. It is an epidemic which recurs every spring and, as soon as the grip of winter begins to loosen and old King Sol begins to reassert his power, this epidemic begins to get in its work, and those who are seized with it take it regularly every year while every year it may safely be said that some new subjects come under its power. As hinted, the epidemic is not often very dangerous and seldom fatal, it is merely the spring fishing fever, which attacks the devotees of the rod in most cases just as soon as the sunny weather, such as Prince Rupertites have been enjoying recently, revivifies the germ in their blood which impels them to go a-fishing.

Although the trout fishermen have to wait, if they would remain law abiding citizens, until March 26 before going in pursuit of their favorite quarry, the salmon fishermen can sally forth at any time of the year. Sport may vary in its excellence but there is always a good chance of a spring salmon in the winter months and for fighting qualities they can beat anything caught in the summer or autumn. Steel-head fishing goes out next Thursday and the following Saturday should see a great exodus of the numerous followers of the immortal Izaak hieing them from town to the nearby streams and lakes where the spotted beauties are to be found. Judging from the very moderate rainfall of the past winter and the small snow-fall in the hills, the streams are likely to be in good condition for fly fishing rather earlier than usual.

"Babe" Ruth has challenged the supremacy of Ty Cobb as baseball's biggest drawing card this year and it will be interesting to see how Cobb responds. There was a day when Cobb might have met the challenge with an unstoppable rush, but Ty is no longer a budding youth. This will mark his fifteenth campaign and fifteen seasons at the pace he started setting back in 1905 and 1906 are quite a spell. Cobb is eight or nine years older than Ruth and those eight or nine years are no light barriers. Ruth starts the season as baseball's leading card. Only his inability to slather the ball out of the lot will remove his tilted crown.

Jack Johnson's surrender to the United States authorities terminates a long period of wandering through foreign climes. The former, heavyweight champion, convicted under the Mann Act, slipped out of Chicago nearly seven years ago, forfeiting his bail and escaping to Canada. His travels brought him through most of the European and Latin American countries. He appeared in vaudeville in English music halls, fought bulls in Spain and Mexico, lost the heavyweight title to Jess Willard in Havana and took part in over a hundred fights. When the war broke out he and his white wife were in Moscow but got out on the last train leaving for the west. They passed through Poland and Germany and reached Paris. Later Johnson went to England and then to Buenos Ayres. From there he went to Spain where he spent some time before going to Mexico where he decided to give himself up.

THAT "Thou shalt not" is seldom heeded in this world.

THAT a friend of mine suggests a few which might be of interest in Prince Rupert.

THAT thou shalt not say sweet things to the "Hello Girls" when they are on duty.

THAT thou shalt not swear over the wire, either at a dinner, a newspaper editor or the man in the apartment overhead who insists on singing or playing the gramophone after midnight.

THAT if thou art a lady thou shalt not be jealous of thy neighbor's hat, nor her dress, nor her house, nor her car nor anything that is hers or her husband's, neither shalt thou flirt with her husband.

THAT if thou art a man thou shalt not whisper in the ear of another man's wife, neither shalt thou pay too great or too frequent attention to her.

THAT thou shalt listen carefully to thy wife's instructions in order to keep peace in the household, but thou shalt not follow them too closely for the same reason. So shalt thou live long in land of thy fathers and not lead the life of a dog.

THAT if thou wouldst belong to the smart set thou shouldst not be too familiar with common people. Learn to look as if the whole world was thine and thou the only ape in it.

FOUNDER OF THE SMITH COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

SOPHIA SMITH — RELATIVE of the SOPHIA SMITH WHO FOUNDED SMITH COLLEGE

SOPHIA SMITH, FOUNDER of SMITH COLLEGE.

This is Sophia Smith, founder of one of the best women colleges in the country, which just had its start in 1875. She was told for her pains by the presidents of Amherst, Yale and Harvard that she was embarking on a foolish, hazardous, wicked, abnormal and perilous scheme, but just the same the Smith College is still there. A descendant (shown in the oval) of the founder by the same name is trying to raise $4,000,000 for the Smith alumnae.
