DAILY EDITION. MONDAY, MARCH 4

BOURASSA WILL PROBABLY VISIT RUPERT.

We announced a few days ago that Mr. Bourassa is going for an extended tour of some three months' duration through the west to explain his policy, as he conceives it to be misunderstood. Fortunately the trip is not to be made until after the Quebec elections (a somewhat indefinite date), for in this way his western explanations cannot be used against him in the east. In the long interval he will perhaps find time to find out what his policy is since the Conservatives have come into power. His explanatory articles in the "Devoir" but exhibit his inability or unwillingness to adopt a clearly defined position. He writes like a man in a quandary.

The announcement that he is to take Mr. Armand Lavergne with him is also amusing, for has not Mr. Lavergne said that he personally favored Mr. Graham for South Renfrew, but not politically; but "the time had not come yet to fight the Borden government"? The attitude of these men before the election was clear enough. They were, according to their words, against the navy, against corruption, but above all, "Down with Laurier."

Now that they have vanquished Sir Wilfrid Laurier they are supporting, if not abetting, political dismissals and appointments, and even practically supporting a government that has not yet repudiated the Laurier navy. No doubt one of Mr. Bourassa's disciples, Mr. Seibny, has introduced a motion which will not come up this session, for the repeal of the Navy Act, as, indeed, after such a campaign of "Point de Marine, had to be done, and we may presume that there is within doors a good deal of discussion and planning, and possibly "fighting like blazes," over the need of satisfying both ends of the country; but it is wonderful how politicians in power can get together. Meantime the bold buccaneer who made the trouble seems, in his minute-gun articles in the "Devoir," to be whistling languidly for a breeze to find which way to trim his sails.

The new city hall is beginning to take on architectural features that are surprisingly charming. They are awakening among the citizens a dormant civic pride. But mingled with this eminently proper pride there is a strong dose of doubt that the building is going to cost fifteen cents or two bits more than the original estimate. There is the devil of it. No doubt the Mayor will have his instructions to keep the real cost a deep, dark-blue secret until the provincial elections are over.

No Man Need Use Poor Printing Unless He is Willing and Satisfied

...to Do So...

The man who is able to buy any kind of printing is able to buy good printing. If he uses anything else it indicates to people who see it that he doesn't care.

Most people would prefer a man of general character and personality to be in keeping with his printing—so its disastrous not to care about your printing.

THE DAILY NEWS.

WOMAN'S VERSION OF "THE VAMPIRE"

A fool there was, and she lowered her pride
(Even as you and I)
To a bunch of conceit in a masculine hide—
(Others saw the faults that could not be denied)
But the fool saw only his manly side
(Even as you and I).

Oh, the love we laid on our own heart's grave
With the care of our head and hand
Belongs to the man who did not know
(And now we know that he never could know)
And did not understand.

A fool there was and her best she gave
(Even as you and I).
Of noble thought, of gay and grave,
(And all were accepted as due to the knave),
But a fool would never her folly save.
(Even as you and I).

Oh, the stabs she hid, which the Lord forbid
Had ever been really planned.
She took from the man who didn't know why
(And now we know he never knew why)
And did not understand.

The fool was loved while the game was new
(Even as you and I).
And when it was played she took her cue—
(Plodding along as most of us do)
Trying to keep his faults from view.
(Even as you and I).

And it isn't the ache of the heart or its break
That stings like a white-hot brand—
It is the LEARNING TO KNOW that she raised a God
And bent her head to kiss the rod for one who could not understand.

DON'TS FOR BOWLERS.

Don't try to learn in a day.
Don't use too much speed at first.
Don't grip the ball too tight.
Don't loft the ball.
Don't play the side ball until you have mastered the centre delivery.
Don't swing the ball more than once before delivering it.
Don't start with a jump; walk one and run two steps.
Don't deliver the ball with the right foot in front.
Don't step on or over the foul line.
Don't think you can change the course of the ball after it has left your hand.
Don't allow the alley birds to get your goat.
Don't expect a strike because you hit the head pin.
Don't throw away a spare because you think you were entitled to a strike.
Don't think the other fellow has all the luck; play away; things will change.

The Time For Action

Is the Time When The Daily News Appears each day

The Statement

If you have a legitimate, clean-cut offering of any kind to make to the intelligent public, the consistent, judicious use of the advertising columns of THE DAILY NEWS will bring you money returns much greater than your expenditure.

The Reasons

THE DAILY NEWS is read largely in the evening when the minds of people are free from business cares and therefore responsive to good selling arguments.

THE DAILY NEWS appears early enough in the afternoon of the business and shopping day to notify everyone of what you have new to offer.

THE DAILY NEWS is for this reason the best possible medium for all real estate dealers, as it immediately attracts those on the lookout for "snaps" or permanent investments.

THE DAILY NEWS is concise and to the point. It is read by practically every intelligent and prosperous person in Prince Rupert and the northern part of this province. These men and women have money to spend and buy regularly where they receive satisfaction. Their patronage is the merchant's best asset.

The Proof

THE DAILY NEWS is being used by more and more merchants and other business men as an advertising medium. They find that their advertisements in this newspaper pay them handsomely. Many instances can be cited. Results following in THE DAILY NEWS.
