CALGUTTA RACES

The King Will Bet Apart 100 Guineas Annually for the King George Race

The King and Queen attended the races when they were in Calcut. Their Majesties' presence contribute to bring together the largest crow ver seen on the racecourse, and the huge stands were packed to their ut most capacity. The race for the King Cup provided a grand contest, whi resulted in a victory by a length and a half for Mr. J. C. Galstau's Brogut. Mr. Goculda's Last Call was second, and Mr. Kelso's Hilarity third, half a length behind. Eighteen ran. After the races the King warmly congratu lated the stewards on the excellence of the racing and th club arrange ments, and declared his intention of annually giving a cup worth 100 guineas for the race bearing his name.
