ILLNESS AGAIN TO BE FACED

Mrs. J. S. Cowper, Formerly of Prince Rupert, Was to Undergo Another Operation in Hospital at Vancouver.

It is learned with regret by those who remember the serious illness successfully overcome last summer by Mrs. J. S. Cowper, that a renewal of the same complaint has necessitated her removal to a hospital in Vancouver to undergo another operation. Since the family left for Vancouver, where Mr. Cowper occupies a desk with the Vancouver Province, all the young members have enjoyed better than usual health, but Mrs. Cowper, whose health has never been of the most robust since her arrival on the Pacific coast, has been particularly unfortunate in having twice to face the same operation.

DR. NESBITT ARRESTED
One Time Conservative Member of Ontario Legislature.

(Special to Daily News.)
Toronto, April 12.—Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, who has been a fugitive from justice for over a year, who was wanted on a charge of forgery in connection with the wreck-Farmers' Bank, was arrested in Chicago last night. He was the bank's first president and made a getaway in the early stages of the investigation into the bank's affairs. He was prominent in Conservative circles and at one time was member of the provincial legislature.

POLITICS IN ALASKA
Four Candidates for Position of Delegate to Washington.

Valdez, Alaska, April 8.—In a private letter received here Delegate James Wickersham announced that he has decided to stand for re-election as delegate to Congress from Alaska. He was elected in 1910 on an independent Republican ticket over Ed. S. Orr of Fairbanks, who was the regular Republican nominee. Delegate Wickersham will be the fourth candidate in the field, the others being William A. Gilmore, mayor of Nome, Republican; Robert W. Jennings of Juneau, Democratic; and Martin Harris of Fairbanks, independent Democratic.

Fixing Responsibility.
It is proposed that the New York authorities be empowered by law to mark the ownership of houses by fixing on the front door jamb a little plate bearing the name of the person in whom the title rests. The idea is, of course, that outwardly respectable people who derive rents from mean tenements and from houses used for questionable purposes will by this means be exposed to public criticism and put to shame.
