LADY POLICE OFFICERS NOW EMPLOYED IN VANCOUVER

NEW DEPARTMENT INSTITUTED BY POLICE COMMISSIONERS FOR PURPOSE OF GUARDING GIRLS AGAINST PERILS OF THE CITY AND OTHER REFORMS

Lady police officers will soon be patrolling their beats in Vancouver, drawing the same pay and vested with the same authority as a full-fledged male officer.

This decision was arrived at the other day by the board of authorized Chief Chamberlain to appoint two suitable members of the fair sex to work in conjunction with the police force in maintaining law and order in the city.

In answer to a question as to whether ladies could be persuaded to join the force, Chief Chamberlain stated that he already had two ladies in view, and he believed that they were eminently suited for the work.

It was explained by the police commissioners for the benefit of the chief, that the duties of the lady officers would be to keep a watchful eye on the movements of recalcitrant girls who were likely to fall into the clutches of the law. Men will not have a chance to be arrested by the lady constables, but it is possible that the male members of the force will be put wise to a lot of things that may have escaped their notice.
