Exhibit From Fruit Valleys of British Columbia Delights Winnipeg People.

The photograph below of the Great Northern Railway's City Ticket Office window exhibit at Winnipeg, showing display of fruits taken from the Similkameen, Kootenai, Okanagan and other delightful fruit valleys of British Columbia, has been of great interest to the citizens of the Chicago of Northwestern Canada during the bleak days of December and January.

obtained from the exhibit, states: "A number of British Columbia firms are pushing the sale of their properties here and I am informed that our exhibit made it possible for them to close quite a number of deals." The Manitoba Free Press of Winnipeg, in writing of the exhibition, said: "The result of this campaign should be a wide spread interest in the opportunities for

This exhibit is one of twenty, which have been made in the large cities throughout the east, including Chicago, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Buffalo, Cincinnati, Cleveland, St. Louis and Des Moines. The story of the advantages of settlement in the fruit growing districts lying west of the Rocky mountains in British Columbia was told at a glance to thousands of passers-by by the display of prize winning apples, which were appetizingly arranged in the window, and the interest created was marked. home-making in the fruit growing districts of the Northwest." The Winnipeg Tribune, made the following comments in regard to the exhibit: "The fruit in the exhibit comes principally from the fertile Similkameen Valley in British Columbia, near the boundary. Other particularly favorable localities are the Kootenai District, the Okanagan Valley, the Kettle River Valley and the Westminister District." It is expected that this exhibit will result in a large number of people investigating the opportunities for home-making in the fruit valleys of southern British Columbia along the line of the Great Northern Railway.

WHAT IS RAIN?
 Answer to the First Question Prince Rupert Children Ask.

Rain is a wet article which falls with great enthusiasm just when somebody is trying to pull off a lawn party. It bears a close resemblance to water and is sometimes used as a substitute by people who prefer to take their microbes in a raw state. Rain is a very uncertain quantity with everybody except the weather bureau experts, who can always tell where it is going to light if they see it headed their way. There are several distinct varieties of rain, all of which are quite moist. The least obtrusive of this is dew, a substance used by Robert W. Chambers to make some very amorous dewey eyes and dewless morns. A great deal of poetry has been written about the dew, but nobody ever mentions its effect upon the paper-soled pump and the crinoline petticoat. Another form of rain is the Kansas thunderstorm, which is a distinct relative of the Japanese typhoon and step-father to the double-faced wash-out, the spring freshet and the lightning rod industry. The most devastating form of rain is the cloudburst, which always waits until the score is tied in the ninth inning before mingling with the spectators. In the arid regions people get tired of waiting for rain and go after it with dynamite and protracted meetings, while over in the rain belt farmers have to cultivate their corn in a row boat. Hail is rain in pill form, and it is the silent partner of the plate glass trolley. Snow is a chilled form of rain which perspires freely in the spring and prevents the accumulation of dust on the country roads. One of the most appetising varieties of rain is the summer shower, which fills the cisterns of the plain people with hope and decayed vegetation. The rainy season of the Pacific slope is a damp epidemic which results for a mournful leak in the average mean precipitation. It is of slight importance, and is not advertised to any extent by the transcontinental railroads. — "Sidewalk Sketches," by Howard L. Rann.

- THAT as you are reading this, others would have read your advertisement had it been inserted here.
- THAT the Daily News Custom Printing Department guarantees satisfaction on every job that goes out of the shop, satisfaction as to quality and price.
- THAT accountants can have their office books and record forms prepared here under their own supervision at moderate cost.
- THAT we make a specialty of rebinding books that are coverworn but otherwise fit for use.
