

ROMANCE WILL END IN CALGARY

After Quarter of a Century with Shipwreck, James McDonald Will Come to Canada and Wed Former Sweetheart.

San Francisco, May 16.—James McDonald arrived here Wednesday on the steamer Harvard en route to Calgary, Canada, to meet Miss Harriet Woodside, his sweetheart of twenty-five years ago, who, until a week ago, believed him dead.

McDonald sailed from the New England coast on the whaling barque Fannie Griffith a quarter of a century ago. Physicians had advised him to take a sea voyage for his health and he expected to return and be married. The Fannie Griffith was wrecked and McDonald was believed to have been lost on the North American coast. After many hardships he made his way back to the New England village and found that Miss Woodside had married. He did not let his presence become known and returned to the sea.

In the years that followed he occasionally had news of his one time fiancée through a mutual friend. He learned last week in Los Angeles that her husband had died, and he left for Canada the next day.

LONDON MADE SUITS TO MEASURE

There is a distinctive style and finish about a "Curzon" Suit which the "ready-to-wear" garments sold in Canada and the States lack. Indeed the "Curzon" cut and finish is hardly equalled even in garments sold by the best Custom Tailors, whose charges are always excessive, if not altogether prohibitive. There is just that ease and comfort about our garments which give the wearer a "well at ease" appearance.

Then there is the cloth to remember: nothing but real British materials every time.
