TY COBB FIGHTS

Uncomplimentary Remark From Stand Raises Ire of the Georgian

New York, May 19.—Ty Cobb, star outfielder of the Detroit Tigers, is still angry today over his encounter yesterday with a New York fan. As Cobb, who is a Georgian, started to bat in the fourth inning of the game with the Yankees, someone in the stand shouted an uncomplimentary remark about the southland. Ty dropped his bat and walloped the disturber good and hard. He was more than holding his own against heavy odds when he was rescued by other players.

Best room in town at Savoy.

Junior Baseball.

The ball game on Saturday last between the S. B. J. and P. B. C.'s proved to be a very lively affair, resulting in a win for the latter team by 11 to 6. The S. B. J. team has improved vastly since its first game, and with steady practice should give a good account of themselves. The batteries were Moore and Christanson for the P. B. C.'s, and Nehring and Ambrose for the S. B. J.'s. Nehring for the P. B. C.'s made some good plays and has all the earmarks of a star ball tosser.

Service Must Speak

A STORE is almost human. It is full of temperament. It affects each customer with the composite personality of its management and staff.

There are stores and stores. There are "grouchy" stores and "smiling" stores. There are flip-pant stores and dignified stores. And the peculiar thing about each is that the goods or the prices have little to do with the store's temperament. It is the personality of the store that colors and defines the character of the goods from the customer's view-point and wins or repels approval.

The temperament or personality of a store is vividly expressed in its face. The face of a store is its advertising. You can judge a store by its advertising the same as you can judge a man by his facial expression.

Stores that honestly try to serve their customers best simply can't help advertising. It is the way of human nature that when we have spent the best of our brain power and physical and financial resources in building up something worth while, our enthusiasm bursts forth into publicity. We simply cannot restrain the desire to tell others about it.

In the long run, service is what you pay for, always. The goods, as goods alone, are incidental. Service implies quality, fair prices, safe treatment, and honest detail of every transaction.

The service store is the "serving" store. It is also the honest-advertising store. By this, you may know it always—anywhere.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or through the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Bldg., Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.
