THOSE WHO ARE OBSERVANT

Discoverers of Things and the Men Who Save Money, Save Labor and Save Trouble for Themselves and Others Are Rare.

When Sir Isaac Newton saw an apple fall from its parent tree he studied out the reason and discovered the existence of the law of gravitation.

This was only a few hundred years ago. And to think that millions of apples had fallen from trees ever since the Garden of Eden, and no one had previously sought out the reason why.

But it was only human nature after all. Most people are only made to observe after lessons in experience.

The proportion of non-observant people is just as great today as it was a thousand years ago.

There are thousands of men and women who pick up a newspaper and see its pages filled with advertising, and do not know why.

They are like the millions who saw apples fall from the trees before the days of Newton, and it has never occurred to them to

After Newton explained his discovery, it became so plain a child could understand it.

The value of reading the advertisements in newspapers is just as plain.

Every advertisement has a value to some one. The one that may be worth a whole lot to you is likely to be in this newspaper today.

The law of gravitation causes an apple to fall. The law of economy causes the advertisements to appear in this newspaper.

Every time an apple falls it emphasizes the law of gravitation.

Every time an advertisement appears it emphasizes the invitation to get the best and most for your money.

Why not begin with this issue and figure out the reason for each advertisement?

Discover the things that affect you for your betterment.

If you pass the advertisements you are in the same class with the millions who saw the apples fall and saw no significance in the incident.

If you read the ads you discover the great truths of economy.

Today is the best time to begin.

DON'T ENVY HIM, BUT IMITATE HIM

One of the old and great financiers of the East in addressing a class of young men said: "The opportunities of tomorrow will be far greater than in the past, fortunes will be made with greater certainty and rapidly owing to modern methods, especially those points in the west geographically situated to handle the commerce of the world."

ENGLAND'S WAR LORD

Haldane Makes Another Journey to Germany.

London, May 27. — Viscount Haldane, secretary of state for war, left for Germany tonight.
It is surmised that he would continue his mission begun in the early spring relative to international relations and the restriction of armaments. But it was officially stated tonight that Secretary Haldane's visit was purely of a private nature and was undertaken for his health. It is rumored further that the secretary is not going to Berlin.
