TUESDAY, JUNE 4

SHOULD COME TO RUPERT.

The Prince Rupert Board of Trade should make an especial effort to induce the captains of industry coming from the Old Country on a visit to the Dominion to come to Prince Rupert. So far it does not appear that Prince Rupert is included in the list of places to be visited. Immediate action should be taken in the matter.

Widespread interest has been aroused in the visit of the most important body of business men and manufacturers that has ever left Great Britain on a visit to the self-governing colonies, and the party will make an exhaustive tour of the Dominion from coast to coast, visiting all of the chief cities and industrial centres with a view of ascertaining the opportunities that exist in the Dominion for extending the market for British made goods.

The captains of British industry, bent on a mission fraught with the greatest possibilities, include leading men in almost every branch of British manufacture.

It is to be hoped that Prince Rupert will not let the opportunity to present her wonderful resources to these noted Britishers escape.

PANAMA DITCH NEARLY READY

Great Canal is Now Eighty Per Cent. Finished, and Ships May be Passing Through in August 1913.

"The canal is more than 80 per cent. finished," said R. C. Hall, an extensive wheat raiser of Moose Jaw, who is returning from a pleasure trip to Central America, particularly the Panama zone, and was most enthusiastic over the work being done on the big ditch.

"If it were necessary, the ditch could be opened by July 1, 1913, and the talk down there now is that the trial trips through it will be made in August, 1913. Regular commercial traffic, however, will not be allowed to pass through until several months later."

"I was amazed at the progress that has been made on the work. Why, the last load of cement was dumped into the Gatun Locks on April 15th last, and when I say the work is 80 per cent. completed, I am conservative."

"Prices seem to be high in Vancouver, but, say, you ought to go up against some of the charges down in Central America."

lemonade brought by friends, refused to get out herself. The company's men proceeded to fill the hole, however, and when she found herself knee deep in the rising earth Miss O'Hare surrendered.

The threat to turn a hose on the workers was not carried out because two policemen were present, and the motor truck driver failed in his charge because he could not pursue them over the curbstone.

UNMARRIED GIRLS CAGED

Drastic Plan Employed by Natives of New Britain to Prevent Their Foolish Little Flappers from Becoming Frigidities.

New York, May 31.—The Rev. George Brown, D. D., who has passed many years of his life in the South Sea Islands endeavoring to stamp out polygamy and cannibalism among the natives, says in some parts of New Britain the natives have a custom of placing young women in strict seclusion before marriage by imprisoning them in cages for several years until they reach a marriageable age. Dr. Brown, says the London Globe, describes how on one occasion he inspected a number of these human cages.

"The cage was quite clean," he said, "and contained nothing but a few short lengths of bamboo for holding water. There was only room for a girl to sit or lie down in a crouched position on the bamboo platform, and when the doors are shut it must be nearly or quite dark inside. They are never allowed to come out except once a day to bathe in a dish or wooden bowl placed close to each cage. They are placed in the cage when quite young and must remain there until their marriage."

ACCORDION HAT THE VERY LATEST

New Head Gear Attracts Crowds in New York as Fair Wearer Walks Along Fifth Avenue—Folds Up on Head at Will.

New York, June 1.—Fifth Avenue was startled today by the appearance of a new millinery creation. It was worn by a young woman, who strolled along serenely unconscious of the excitement she was causing. Women in automobiles sat up and took deliberate notice while the men on the sidewalk stood up and did the same thing.

The unique thing about this new headgear is its remarkable size and peculiar adaptability. It is not only the newest thing in the way of hats, but the very newest thing in the way of street traffic. It resembles somewhat the formerly popular "Merry Widow." But compared to this new chapeau, the "Merry Widow" is as a Lincoln penny to a lead dollar. It is about five feet in diameter, when extended, but when gathered in, is only about a foot wide. The young woman strolled along the avenue and, on approaching a crowd, would gather in her hat and pass straight through. No one was disturbed.

In wearing one of these new hats it is necessary to keep the eyes straight ahead, and for this very reason the new style ought to be very popular with certain mammals. But the principal reason is evident when one considers its length. While it folds up to one foot, its "long diameter" remains the same, five feet. If the young woman who tried out the new style turned her head she would sweep every one within a radius of five feet into the street. The traffic policeman was painfully ill at ease when the wearer was in his zone, and breathed a sigh of contentment when she passed into his brother officer's beat. His rule book gave no instructions in a case of this kind.

FOR WEEKS FAST ASLEEP

Baby Girl's Case Puzzles Physicians—Slumber is Apparently Restful and Natural—Figure Has Wasted to Mere Skeleton.

Toronto, June 1.—Two weeks ago, Amy Elliott, a bright, rosy-cheeked little English lassie of 4 years, while in the bath-tub, complained of a headache, and while being removed to bed, fell fast asleep on her mother's arm. This morning she lies in a little cot at the Sick Children's hospital, entering on a third week of continuous slumber. During the past fourteen days her eyes have been closed in a sleep apparently natural and restful, but yet so deep that neither parents nor doctors could arouse her. During that time, too, not a morsel of food has passed her lips.

At an early hour yesterday morning the mother in a panic of alarm bundled the child in shawls and hastened to the Sick Children's hospital to place her in the doctor's care. There she lies today as unconscious as ever her little figure wasted to a mere skeleton, and all efforts to awaken or nourish her yet unavailing.

At the Children's Hospital this morning a consultation of doctors was held, but the diagnosis is not yet made. A most interesting case, said one of them, and likely a form of brain trouble.

Sold in bulk by quart or pint, delicious, refreshing hot weather necessity, ice cream at Keeley's.

Be Suspicious

BE suspicious of that of which nobody is proud. Be suspicious of the mere low-price argument offered in favor of an article with no reputation, no backer, no guarantor.

Better buy the thing you know and can trust, than an article unbranded and unvouched for.

The branded shoe, made by a maker with a reputation, is a safer shoe to buy than the one made in an unknown factory by an unknown maker.

The underwear made by a firm whose name is as familiar to you as your own, is worth more to you than underwear nameless or labelled by a maker of whom you have never heard.

Tea sealed in a packet bearing the name of a reputable firm is to be preferred to tea of which the packer is not sufficiently proud to advertise its quality.

That in which much money has been invested to make or keep it good is worth more than that on which nothing or but little has been spent.

Peace of mind is worth something, just as quality is. Buy peace of mind.

When you buy anything worth while buying, buy that of which you know— from advertisements, or from other dependable acquaintance. Buy the article with the "money back" guarantee—with the pledge of a known name behind it.

Put your faith in the advertisements appearing in good newspapers. Beware of the article that cannot stand the spot-light of publicity. The commodity an advertiser backs with his own money is something worth your buying.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 518 Laramie Building. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—no cost, if interested.
