"SALADA" ORANGE PEKOE

HE FLEW SOUTH FOR DECORATION

Douglas G. Kerr, wartime R. C. A. F. bomber pilot and now in charge of the city's Postal Station "B", was south at the week-end receiving the Distinguished Flying Cross from the Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia Saturday at an investiture at the Sea Island R. C. A. F. station, Vancouver. Mr. Kerr flew south to receive his decoration.

A veteran of 35 missions over enemy territory in Europe, Mr. Kerr was cited for his action in bringing back his bomber after damage by enemy fire. His is one of a group of ex-servicemen who are being decorated at the Sea Island investiture.

REALLY A COMPLIMENT

The custom of throwing shoes at weddings originated when shoes were regarded as a symbol of wealth, since tanned leather was too expensive for any but nobility.
